TAX QUESTION A LIVE TOPIC

Many Persons Say the Millage Should Be Seduced Under New Appraisement.

TWELVE MILLLS OBJECTED TO

Some Taxpayers Assert That, With Valuation Increased From $3,400,000 to $5,500,000, an Eight Mill Tax Would Be Enough.

The question of tax levy for East Liverpool under the new appraisement has agitated the public to such an extent recently that a great many people are wondering what will be the outcome. Indeed, the feeling has become so intense that it is likely to be an issue in the coming contest for the position of councilmen.

Under the appraisement of 1890 the valuation of real and personal property was $3,400,810. From time to time the millage has been increased in order to meet the growing expenses of running the city government. About six years ago it had reached 12 mills and has remained at that figure ever since.

The income under the old valuation was $40,809.72, and are barely adequate for the requirements of the city council. It is the opinion of many that the levy should not be higher than before, and enough people have interested themselves in the matter to cause a great deal of agitation.

The new appraisement fixes the valuation at about $5,500,000, and it can readily be seen that if the levy is permitted to remain at 12 mills the increase will be enormous. From $40,809.72 the income will be raised to something like $66,000.

A majority of those who have been approached on the subject are of the opinion that eight mills would be about the proper levy. It is argued that the present amount should be increased somewhat, and the above figures would bring an increase of about $3,000.

A large number of taxpayers have been interviewed on the subject, including some of the largest property owners in the city, and while their opinions vary as to what the amount should be, they are unanimous in the belief that it would be unwise to allow the levy to remain at 12 mills under the late valuation.

In all probability a canvass will be made among the candidates for council in the various wards, in order that a distinct understanding may be obtained as to where they stand on the question, and just what the taxpayers may expect in case they are elected.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Presiding Elder Holmes Conducted the Services Last Night.

Dr. O. W. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the East Ohio conference, conducted the regular quarterly conference services at the First M. E. church last night. The condition of the church in every particular was found most satisfactory. Only routine business was transacted.

Justice Rose's Decision.

Justice Rose rendered judgment for $15 and the costs of prosecution in the case of Nancy Huff against T. S. Todd. The suit was for a board bill.

The Big Trunk Line Has Now Secured the Ohio River Road.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 9.—From an official source it is learned that the Baltimore & Ohio is about to purchase the Ohio River railroad, which extends from this city to Huntington, W. Va., and which also controls the short line extending through a soft coal field from New Martinsville on the Ohio river to Clarksburg in the very interior of the state.

The purpose in securing control of the Ohio River road is said to be an ambition to get exclusive control of the great coal fields, and the purchase is consequent upon its recent acquisition of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling. The Ohio River road is at present controlled by the Standard Oil interests. The J. Pierpont Morgan interests are seeking to control the soft coal production of the United States. They already control the Hocking Valley production, and as they are hand in glove with the Standard Oil interests and the moving power behind the Baltimore & Ohio, it would not be a difficult matter to have the Ohio River road pass into their control. This done, the entire

The New Line to Be Double Track And With Little Grade—A Connection With the C. & P. for Pittsburg Now Hinted At.

Pittsburg, March 9.—An important step will be taken today by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company to establish a direct trunk line through Pittsburg as the main line to Chicago says the Dispatch this morning. A party of engineers will go into the field to locate the line of the Chicago cut-off from Smith's Ferry, Pa., to Canton, O., a distance of 60 miles. Preliminary surveys were made a year ago and the rights of way were subsenorth side, and the Baltimore and Ohio has no connection with the points traversed. In order to get into Pittsburg from Smith's Ferry either a new line must be built or some arrangements made with the Pennsylvania road to use the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks between these points. Nothing could be learned yesterday as to how the Baltimore and Ohio proposes to get into Pittsburg over the new route, but there have been rumors of an arrangement with the Pennsylvania road.

The engineering party to locate the new line arrived in Pittsburg yesterday. They are in charge of W. L. Sisson, locating engineer. The other engineers are: G. H. Earp, C. W. Brown, W. R. Koonce, A. V. Rollins, S. M. Johnson, K. Faust, T. A. Blays, W. Jennings, J. B. Trenholm, R. C. McComas and O. L. Meisse, all from Baltimore. They will go into the field today.

THE RAILROAD CONSIDERING THE CITY'S REQUESTS.

Demand for Light And Gates in East Liverpool Soon to Receive Attention.

At last the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad has been heard from in reference to the improvements which were ordered along that line in this city.

It will be remembered that council, at a meeting held some time ago, passed upon the question of requiring the Pennsylvania company to light the yards and place safety gates at several of the more dangerous crossings. The company was notified of the action, and it was thought by many that the order had been ignored entirely.

Clerk Hanley this morning received a lengthy communication from Superintendent Scriven, in which he sets forth that owing to the radical nature of the changes required by council it would take some time to do the work, and begged that the authorities bear with him yet a little longer. The superintendent was inclined to believe, however, that more lights were requested than were really necessary, and that half the number would be ample.

Mr. Scriven stated that the company was just now considering the advisability of erecting an electric light plant in Wellsville, and in case the plan was carried out, it would extend the lines to this city.

The communication will be considered at the next meeting of council Tuesday night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Arrangements Made for Conferring the Second Degree.

The local branch of the Knights of Columbus, at their meeting last Thursday evening, decided to confer the second degree at the meeting to be held April 3.

The organization is making elaborate preparations for a banquet to be held on Easter Monday. Arrangements are also in progress for a trip to Steubenville on March 20 to witness the conferring of the third degree by the lodge there.

The lodge will attend a lecture to be given by Father Halligan in Wellsville tomorrow evening. The order will go to the rooms of the Wellsville organization and from there they will accompany the sister lodge in a body to the church.

Harry Hunter left today on the noon train for Salem, where he has accepted a position in the pottery.

Want the Saloon Smasher to Visit East Liverpool—Zeal And Enthusiasm Displayed at the Convention. Eleven Present at the Ratification.

Seven Prohibitionists assembled in Y. M. C. A. hall last evening to nominate a city and township ticket.

After a long and serious discussion they succeeded in their allotted task and the nominations were approved, unanimously by the seven men present and also by four others who arrived after the list of nominations had been completed.

The township ticket named was as follows:

Justices of the peace, Archie Seairight and James McCormick; township trustee, J. C. McClane; township assessor, Hunter Croft; constable, H. C. Carroll.

For city officers these nominations were made:

Council, First ward, Jerry Dennis; Second ward, S. J. Faulk; Third ward, Ed Hassey; Fourth ward, J. S. Doak; Fifth ward, W. A. Andrews; assessor, First ward, Charles Alley; Second ward, Frank Anderson; Third ward, W. E. Mercer; Fourth ward, C. E. Faulk; Fifth ward, Frank White; board of education, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. W. H. Gladden.

The Prohibitionists began to gather at 7 o'clock and by 8 o'clock seven of them had arrived. After discussing Carrie Nation for an hour and deciding that they would extend to her an invitation to visit East Liverpool with her little hatchet, they proceeded to business, unanimously choosing S. J. Faulk chairman and W. A. Weaver secretary. The president then appointed the remaining five on a committee to nominate candidates. The committee proceeded to work with zeal and earnest deliberation. The nomination for justice was much discussed, but the committee finally arrived at the conclusion that Archie Seairight could beat Carman, so the first nomination was made. They glided along smoothly over the rest of the ticket, none of the candidates named being present, until they came to Ed Hassey. He was present and objected to going on the ticket, but having admitted that he was willing to do anything to help he was nominated forthwith.

The only difficulty experienced was in finding sufficient members of the party to make up a ticket. When they came to the school board they had exhausted the list, and so nominated Rev. Mr. Taggart, who has just closed his second term as a Republican. The meeting then adjourned, confident of victory for the entire ticket.

Busler Sued Twice.

Irvin H. Busler, the C. & P. brakeman, now in jail on a charge of burglary preferred by Mrs. Leah Polen, of Center street, Wellsville, has been sued in Squire Mackenzie's court by Mrs. Polen for $10 borrowed money and a laundry bill of $1, and by M. B. Shingler for $19 50 due on a watch. The case will be heard on Monday.

A GHASTLY DISCOVERY MADE IN A CITY SCHOOL BUILDING.

While removing a box of geological specimens from the basement of the Third street school building about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Janitor Davidson discovered a human foot concealed in the top of the box immediately beneath the lid.

The box is about 18 inches square and was almost filled with small stones neatly wrapped in paper and labeled with the name of their particular class. The box has been in the basement of the building for several years and no one has yet been found who knows how and when it came there.

Some time ago a man named Jones, residing on Third street, was engaged to do some gas fitting at the building and reported to the janitor that he had seen the foot. Mr. Davidson paid no attention to the matter at the time, as James was of a superstitious turn. Yesterday he recalled the incident and resolved to investigate.

The teachers made a trip to the building this morning for the purpose of viewing the find. Misses Griggs, Thompson, Hall and Andrews were in the party.

The foot is undoubtedly that of a woman, from its size, and has been in the box for some time. It is hard and dry, being discolored from exposure, but most of the flesh is still upon the bones. From the appearance of the member it was cut from the leg as the stump is smooth and even.

The foot is still in the box and was viewed by a great many people during the day.

UNION HELD A MEETING.

Street Railway Employees Still Holding Conferences.

A meeting of local union No. 52, Street Railway Employees, was held last evening. Mr. Reeves was present, but the members refused to talk today. Inquiry made at the office of the company was productive of no better results.

quently obtained. This line will reduce the distance to Chicago 28 miles, will avoid the heavy grades between those points, and will triple the hauling capacity of trains. A double track will be constructed from Smith's Ferry along Little Beaver creek, which it will cross in its windings many times. It will pass through West Point, O., where much valuable undeveloped coal land has been leased. It will also pass through Bayard and Minerva, O., and thus on to Canton.

Nowhere will there be a grade of more than 16 feet to the mile. The new road will pass through a country in which the scenery nearly all the way is beautiful. The construction of the road will be heavy, as no less than 10 tunnels and 15 bridges over Beaver creek, where the line crosses and recrosses, will have to be built. At Canton the new road connects with the present line of the Baltimore & Ohio. From Canton to Warwick a new low grade double track road has just been completed.

The Chicago division of the road has been much improved recently, so with the completion of the new line the road will have one of the most direct and finest double track systems in the country from Smith's Ferry to Chicago.

The new road, however, has still to be connected with Pittsburg from Smith's Ferry. The Cleveland and Pittsburg road follows the river on its

LEHMAN'S LOSS.

A Carload of Horses Belonging to a Former Columbiana Man.

Lisbon, March 9.—Word has been received from H. S. Lehman, formerly of Columbiana, stating that he had met with an immense loss while on his way east from Humboldt, Kan.

Mr. Lehman started from Humboldt with a car load of horses which he expected to sell at Columbiana last Saturday. When about 300 miles this side of Humboldt he went back to see how the animals were getting along and found the car door open and all but 22 of the horses were gone. The train was stopped and backed up 20 miles, when the found five horses lying dead and on further back they found nine more and five of this number had to be killed.

The balance of them strayed away and could not be found. One mule was found grazing along the tracks. It is supposed that in some way the animals worked the door open and jumped out while the train was moving. Mr. Lehman refused to accept any one of the animals from the railroad company, holding it responsible. He returned to Kansas for another load.

TROUBLE WITH WIRES.

TELEPHONE SERVICE INTERRUPTED FOR A TIME.

Cause of a Buzzing Nobody Could Explain Was a Broken Wire—Dog Fatally Shocked.

Quite a little curiosity was aroused in the East End last night by the peculiar whirring of the telephones. No one happened to be curious enough to touch the metal part of the instruments, and no one found out what was the matter.

The telephone wire on the Columbiana line was broken and had fallen across an electric light wire, thus charging the 'phones with electricity. Mr. Thompson, the local manager of the Columbiana, arrived in the suburb a few minutes later and had the lights turned off while the wire was repaired.

The trolley wire just east of the railroad track had broken about the same time and street car traffic was delayed a few minutes.

This morning one of the arc lights in the orchard became detached and fell to the ground, taking the charged wire with it.

A large speckled hound belonging to Thomas May stuck his nose to the wire. It knocked the animal backward and he set up a miserable howl, which lasted until Officer Spence arrived and dispatched him. The owner says the hound was a very valuable one.

AN INJUSTICE TO HIM.

Mr. G. W. Wood States That His Business Was Misrepresented By East Enders.

George W. Wood, of G. W. Wood & Co., manufacturers, of Toledo, O., claims that an injustice was done him in an East End item which appeared in the News Review yesterday. Mr. Wood is selling an atomizer and also other rubber goods, and claims he is the agent alluded to in yesterday's item, although no name was mentioned. Mr. Wood has done business with leading citizens of East Liverpool for years and the News Review is assured by reputable business men that he is a square man and that the goods he sells are first class. They are sold at a uniform price and cannot be purchased at 75 cents or a dollar as asserted.

Mr. Wood has also letters from leading business houses all over the country, which shows that he is of excellent standing in the business world.

The News Review has no intention of reflecting unjustly on any person or injuring any man's business, and regrets that the reporter, to whom the information was given in good faith, did not investigate the story and get both sides of it.

EAST END MATTERS.

Rev. Mr. Snyder, of Calcutta, O., is visiting friends in the East End.

Henry Chambers will begin the erection of three new houses on Pennsylvania avenue as soon as the weather permits.

A number of East End residents are angry at a farmer from the vicinity of Clarkson, who, they think, sold them diseased meat a few days ago. He is expected back again soon and they will then try to have the matter investigated.

REPORTS OVERDRAWN.

This Nation's Attitude Toward Russia Not What Has Been Reported.

Washington, March 9.—Just to what extent our government has expressed itself to the other powers regarding the attitude of Russia in respect to the occupation of Manchuria, and what, if anything, has been received from the British foreign office, would not be divulged for publication by the officials here last night. Our government deems it inexpedient for the Chinese to make any independent arrangement with any foreign power while the peace negotiations are in progress at Peking. An identical note conveying these sentiments has been sent by the United States to each of the powers interested in the settlement of the conditions growing out of the Boxer troubles. The Chinese imperial government also has been acquainted with these sentiments. The statement was made very positively here last night that the United States is not in "secret negotiations" with any other power regarding China. Our practice in dealing with the Chinese situation uniformly has been to make known the attitude of the United States to all the nations interested, and for this purpose identical notes have been sent to them when matters of great importance were under consideration. At the same time the intimation is conveyed that the London dispatches on the subject are overdrawn.

Tell of Magical Results Brought About in Burning, Itching, Bleeding Skin Troubles by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. Chase's Ointment draws more praise from ministers, physicians and lawyers than any other medicine in the world. It is endorsed by every profession.

Extracts from their Letters.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister, 109 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

"For over fifteen years the itching piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me, and frequently, too, the suffering has become intense. At times there was bleeding and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have derived from Dr. Chase's Ointment have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it."

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, Albion, Wis., writes:

"My wife was terribly afflicted with protruding piles and contemplated a surgical operation when her notice was drawn to Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a cure."

"I then used it for an unsightly and troublesome skin affection, which had baffled medical skill for twenty-five years. Dr. Chase's Ointment thoroughly cured it. For piles and skin disease it is worth its weight in gold."

Rev. J. A. Baldwin, Baptist minister, Arkona, Ont., writes:

"For over twenty years I was a great sufferer from itching and protruding piles. I used many remedies and underwent three very painful surgical operations, all without obtaining any permanent benefit. When about to give up in despair I was told to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and did so, finding relief at once. I used three boxes, and am entirely cured. The itching is all gone. I have advised others to use it, believing it would cure them as it has me."

Rev. Chas. Fish, Methodist minister, 192 Dunn Avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes:

"Ten years ago eczema began on my ears and spread over my head and hands. During that time I was a great sufferer. I tried many remedies, and some of the best physicians—specialists on skin diseases—treated me. The first box of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave much relief and five boxes completely cured me. I think my cure a marvel, and gladly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment."

LEHMAN'S LOSS.

A Carload of Horses Belonging to a Former Columbiana Man.

Lisbon, March 9.—Word has been received from H. S. Lehman, formerly of Columbiana, stating that he had met with an immense loss while on his way east from Humboldt, Kan.

Mr. Lehman started from Humboldt with a car load of horses which he expected to sell at Columbiana last Saturday. When about 300 miles this side of Humboldt he went back to see how the animals were getting along and found the car door open and all but 22 of the horses were gone. The train was stopped and backed up 20 miles, when the found five horses lying dead and on further back they found nine more and five of this number had to be killed.

The balance of them strayed away and could not be found. One mule was found grazing along the tracks. It is supposed that in some way the animals worked the door open and jumped out while the train was moving. Mr. Lehman refused to accept any one of the animals from the railroad company, holding it responsible. He returned to Kansas for another load.

C. L. MAGEE IS DEAD

A Prominent Pennsylvania Man
Passed Away After a Long Illness.

HIS DEATH MOST UNEXPECTED

He Was Reported Improving When
There Came a Sudden Change for the Worse—Long Conspicuous in Business And Politics.

Harrisburg, March 9. — Senator Christopher Lyman Magee, of Pittsburgh, editor, statesman, philanthropist and financier, died here, after an illness of more than two years. His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Thursday night and the members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. He gradually grew weaker during the night and his end was peaceful and calm, about 5:22 Friday afternoon.

His remains, it was expected, were to be taken to Pittsburgh about 3 o'clock this afternoon on a special car.

Some Members of Family With Him.

There were with Senator Magee when he died his wife and her sister, Mrs. Warwick; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Magee (latter his brother and wife); Steel Magee and Mr. and Mrs. John Steel, of Pittsburgh. Drs. Browning and Wilson, of Philadelphia, were also with him.

Senator Magee was taken ill with a complication of diseases during the last session of the legislature and was almost under the constant care of a physician until he passed away. During most of the time he was at the Stratford hotel, Philadelphia. He leased a residence in Harrisburg for the legislative session and came here the day previous to the organization. He took his seat on the opening day of the session and only once afterward appeared in the senate. That was the day on which the ballot for United States senator was taken and he voted for Congressman John Dalzell, of Pittsburgh. He kept in close touch with the legislative proceedings, but was too ill to attend the sessions.

The death, it was expected, will be formally announced in the senate on Monday night and the customary adjournment, it was expected, will be taken out of respect to his memory. Committees from the senate and house, it was expected, will be appointed to attend the funeral.

Governor Stone, who knew Mr. Magee intimately for many years, said last night:

"There is no man in Pennsylvania whose death could cause more grief and be a greater public loss than that of Senator Magee. He was an honest, fearless, able man, who built up his own record and who leaves behind him a great host of personal friends, who, upon many occasions, have experienced evidences of his friendship, and who will cherish his memory with sincere gratitude. In a private way, without attracting the attention of the public, he did much for charity and much for the poor, more than those whose names are extolled for public beneficence. I have always admired him, have always respected him, and feel in his death a personal loss."

His Death Was Unexpected.

His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Monday night, and some members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. His end was peaceful and calm.

Mr. Magee was born in Pittsburgh in 1848. Through the death of his father he was obliged to go to work when 15 years old, to help support his mother and three younger children. After a period of office boy he obtained a clerkship, and in 1869 he was made cashier in the city treasury, and in 1871 was elected city treasurer, and was re-elected in 1874. He was elected state senator in 1892, and was twice re-elected. He was a director in numerous Pittsburgh banks, trust companies and insurance companies, and at the time of his death was the principal owner of the Pittsburgh Times. He was also president of the Consolidated Traction company.

WHEAT ABUNDANT.

According to Dun's Report—The Rise
in Iron And Steel Attracts Attention.

New York, March 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Little change was developed this week in the condition of general business. Ground recently gained seemed to be held without difficulty, with a good distribution of merchandise by jobbers in most directions, and with entire absence of speculative activity. There has been a further decline in cotton, which does not help the goods market, still the most backward and disappointing of all the great industries, but in mechanical lines the progress being made is noteworthy. Building materials, including lumber, are in especially urgent demand, and dealers who can deliver stock have no difficulty in securing advanced prices. In this, unlike most other lines of business, the east leads the country, and just at this season it is of particular significance. Collections are reported good all through the west and are better than usual at the south.

Conditions in iron and steel begin to assume an appearance similar to that of 1899. Prices have moved upward rapidly since the turn was made, and bids at current rates for distant delivery are often refused. Manufacturers are unanimous in reporting a great demand for domestic consumption, while export contracts for finished forms are still taken in competition with declining foreign markets. It is at such time, when the outlook is brightest and quotations advancing sharply, that the conservative man becomes cognizant of one fact, that there is always danger of inflation when optimism goes beyond bounds. Granting that there is not a cloud on the horizon, it is well to remember that exports of iron and steel have been smaller of late and yet the present production is far in excess of domestic consumption, even allowing a moderate increase over previous years. Production of coke expands, and shipments are only limited by car shortage.

Two large failures in wool occurred abroad, and three Vermont concerns were forced to suspend. Sales of wool at three chief eastern markets decreased nearly 3,000,000 pounds, compared with the previous week's business, but this is a favorable symptom, as excessive operations of late were due to forced sales at lower prices.

Wheat is in abundant supply, with quotations well above last year's, owing to reports that Hessian fly promises to be unusually troublesome, while weather conditions are also threatening. Atlantic exports of wheat, flour included, were 2,477,990 bushels for the week, against 1,781,895 a year ago; while corn exports were 3,357,438 bushels, against 2,183,218 in 1900. Heavy supplies of coffee at last prevailed over manipulation and prices declined.

Failures for the week were 208 in the United States, against 205 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 33 last year.

SOME ANIMATED SPECULATION.

Money Market Was Rather Easy Friday
Weak Bank Statement Expected Today.

New York, March 9.—There was a very animated speculation in a few of the most prominent industrials in the market Friday and some large operations in one or two railroad stocks. The day's activities were much congested in the quarters indicated.

Sugar and Amalgamated Copper was most prominent in the dealings. The market was weak all around at the opening on a continuation of Thursday's realizing movement. Union Pacific especially was carried down 1%. The large buying of special stocks checked the downward tendency and caused general recoveries. Among the notable gains made by individual stocks were Burlington, 2%; St. Louis and San Francisco, 2%; do second preferred, 3/4; Chicago and Eastern Illinois, 2%; Rio Grande and Western preferred, 2%; Chesapeake and Ohio, 2; Pressed Steel Car, 3/4;

GRANTED A DIVORCE

Mrs. Dingley, of Salem, Legally
Separated From Her Youngs-

MAN A WELL KNOWN MERCHANT

Ellen Farmer, Who Was Married 28
Years Ago, Finds Wedded Life a
Failure And Claims She Was Deserted—Road case Before Court.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—Mrs. Celia Dingley, of Salem, was granted a divorce yesterday afternoon from John Dingley, of Youngstown. The case was devoid of sensational features. Mrs. Dingley was given her divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty and was granted alimony in the sum of $900. The husband will have the care of three minor children. Mr. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant of prominence.

Ellen I. Farmer was in court yesterday afternoon and told the court of her family troubles with Cicero Farmer. The judge also gave her a divorce. Twenty-eight years ago the couple were married in Salem and they are the parents of five children. Mrs. Farmer says the defendant abandoned her without cause and for several years has neglected her. She said that owing to her failing health she was unable to earn enough to keep herself.

The week's session of common pleas court adjourned last evening until Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of John H. Blake against George Rice returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $552 60. A motion was made for a new trial. Blake held a note for $500, which Rice gave him in 1894. Two years later he claimed Rice requested that he give him the note that he might compete the interest, and he never returned the paper, though he was frequently requested to do so. The parties live in Salem township.

Judge Boone has continued the Patterson-Pollard road case from Center township until Monday, March 11, at which time he will render his decision. The question at issue is, Shall a land owner who has no public road be granted a view from the township? John Patterson has no public way from his farm, but a private right of way closed by gates. He wants a township road over his line of private road, and it is claimed that he is entitled by law to one if he pays the damages assessed by the viewers.

A marriage license has been issued to David S. Lodge, of New Waterford, and Miss Elizabeth Mittinger, of Rogers.

Salem Officer—Receiver Asked
for Wellsville I. O. R.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—The case of the Manufacturing Display company against James M. Reed, constable of Salem, was appealed this morning from Mayor Huxley's court in Salem. The company filed the suit to replevin a number of rolltop desks and chiffonieres, which, it was claimed, were being wrongly detained by Reed. The town court held that the writ should hold as to the desks, but not as to the furniture and gave Reed judgment for costs.

George Swaile has sued the Beacon Light Tent, No. 12, I. O. R., of Wellsville, asking the court to give him judgment for $86.65 and to appoint a receiver to take charge of its property. Swaile is a member of the order and claims to be entitled to the amount he asks, as due him from the benefit fund. From March 15 to October 1, 1900, Swaile was sick and unable to work. During this time he says the order paid him only $29.35, when he should be drawing $4 a week after the second week. He says that the tent has now ceased to hold meetings and that some of the members, in violation of the laws of the order, have divided the money among them.

C. L. MAGEE IS DEAD

A Prominent Pennsylvania Man Passed Away After a Long Illness.

HIS DEATH MOST UNEXPECTED

He Was Reported Improving When There Came a Sudden Change for the Worse—Long Conspicuous in Business And Politics.

Harrisburg, March 9.—Senator Christopher Lyman Magee, of Pittsburgh, editor, statesman, philanthropist and financier, died here, after an illness of more than two years. His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Thursday night and the members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. He gradually grew weaker during the night and his end was peaceful and calm, about 5:22 Friday afternoon.

His remains, it was expected, were to be taken to Pittsburgh about 3 o'clock this afternoon on a special car.

Some Members of Family With Him.

There were with Senator Magee when he died his wife and her sister, Mrs. Warwick; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Magee (latter his brother and wife); Steel Magee and Mr. and Mrs. John Steel, of Pittsburgh. Drs. Browning and Wilson, of Philadelphia, were also with him.

Senator Magee was taken ill with a complication of diseases during the last session of the legislature and was almost under the constant care of a physician until he passed away. During most of the time he was at the Stratford hotel, Philadelphia. He leased a residence in Harrisburg for the legislative session and came here the day previous to the organization. He took his seat on the opening day of the session and only once afterward appeared in the senate. That was the day on which the ballot for United States senator was taken and he voted for Congressman John Dalzell, of Pittsburgh. He kept in close touch with the legislative proceedings, but was too ill to attend the sessions.

The death, it was expected, will be formally announced in the senate on Monday night and the customary adjournment, it was expected, will be taken out of respect to his memory. Committees from the senate and house, it was expected, will be appointed to attend the funeral.

Governor Stone, who knew Mr. Magee intimately for many years, said last night:

"There is no man in Pennsylvania whose death could cause more grief and be a greater public loss than that of Senator Magee. He was an honest, fearless, able man, who built up his own record and who leaves behind him a great host of personal friends, who, upon many occasions, have experienced evidences of his friendship, and who will cherish his memory with sincere gratitude. In a private way, without attracting the attention of the public, he did much for charity and much for the poor, more than those whose names are extolled for public beneficence. I have always admired him, have always respected him, and feel in his death a personal loss."

His Death Was Unexpected.

His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Monday night, and some members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. His end was peaceful and calm.

Mr. Magee was born in Pittsburgh in 1848. Through the death of his father he was obliged to go to work when 15 years old, to help support his mother and three younger children. After a period of office boy he obtained a clerkship, and in 1869 he was made cashier in the city treasury, and in 1871 was elected city treasurer, and was re-elected in 1874. He was elected state senator in 1892, and was twice re-elected. He was a director in numerous Pittsburgh banks, trust companies and insurance companies, and at the time of his death was the principal owner of the Pittsburgh Times. He was also president of the Consolidated Traction company.

WHEAT ABUNDANT.

According to Dun's Report—The Rise in Iron And Steel Attracts Attention.

New York, March 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Little change was developed this week in the condition of general business. Ground recently gained seemed to be held without difficulty, with a good distribution of merchandise by jobbers in most directions, and with entire absence of speculative activity. There has been a further decline in cotton, which does not help the goods market, still the most backward and disappointing of all the great industries, but in mechanical lines the progress being made is noteworthy. Building materials, including lumber, are in especially urgent demand, and dealers who can deliver stock have no difficulty in securing advanced prices. In this, unlike most other lines of business, the east leads the country, and just at this season it is of particular significance. Collections are reported good all through the west and are better than usual at the south.

Conditions in iron and steel begin to assume an appearance similar to that of 1899. Prices have moved upward rapidly since the turn was made, and bids at current rates for distant delivery are often refused. Manufacturers are unanimous in reporting a great demand for domestic consumption, while export contracts for finished forms are still taken in competition with declining foreign markets. It is at such time, when the outlook is brightest and quotations advancing sharply, that the conservative man becomes cognizant of one fact, that there is always danger of inflation when optimism goes beyond bounds. Granting that there is not a cloud on the horizon, it is well to remember that exports of iron and steel have been smaller of late and yet the present production is far in excess of domestic consumption, even allowing a moderate increase over previous years. Production of coke expands, and shipments are only limited by car shortage.

Two large failures in wool occurred abroad, and three Vermont concerns were forced to suspend. Sales of wool at three chief eastern markets decreased nearly 3,000,000 pounds, compared with the previous week's business, but this is a favorable symptom, as excessive operations of late were due to forced sales at lower prices.

Wheat is in abundant supply, with quotations well above last year's, owing to reports that Hessian fly promises to be unusually troublesome, while weather conditions are also threatening. Atlantic exports of wheat, flour included, were 2,477,990 bushels for the week, against 1,781,895 a year ago; while corn exports were 3,357,438 bushels, against 2,183,218 in 1900. Heavy supplies of coffee at last prevailed over manipulation and prices declined.

Failures for the week were 208 in the United States, against 205 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 33 last year.

SOME ANIMATED SPECULATION.

Money Market Was Rather Easy Friday Weak Bank Statement Expected Today.

New York, March 9.—There was a very animated speculation in a few of the most prominent industries in the market Friday and some large operations in one or two railroad stocks. The day's activities were much congested in the quarters indicated.

Sugar and Amalgamated Copper was most prominent in the dealings. The market was weak all around at the opening on a continuation of Thursday's realizing movement. Union Pacific especially was carried down 1%. The large buying of special stocks checked the downward tendency and caused general recoveries. Among the notable gains made by individual stocks were Burlington, 2%; St. Louis and San Francisco, 2%; do second preferred, 3%; Chicago and Eastern Illinois, 2%; Rio Grande and Western preferred, 2%; Chesapeake and Ohio, 2; Pressed Steel Car, 3%;

GRANTED A DIVORCE

Mrs. Dingley, of Salem, Legally Separated From Her Youngstown Husband.

MAN A WELL KNOWN MERCHANT

Ellen Farmer, Who Was Married 28 Years Ago, Finds Wedded Life a Failure And Claims She Was Deserted—Road case Before Court.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—Mrs. Celia Dingley, of Salem, was granted a divorce yesterday afternoon from John Dingley, of Youngstown. The case was devoid of sensational features. Mrs. Dingley was given her divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty and was granted alimony in the sum of $900. The husband will have the care of three minor children. Mr. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant of prominence.

Ellen I. Farmer was in court yesterday afternoon and told the court of her family troubles with Cicero Farmer. The judge also gave her a divorce. Twenty-eight years ago the couple were married in Salem and they are the parents of five children. Mrs. Farmer says the defendant abandoned her without cause and for several years has neglected her. She said that owing to her failing health she was unable to earn enough to keep herself.

The week's session of common pleas court adjourned last evening until Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of John H. Blake against George Rice returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $552.60. A motion was made for a new trial. Blake held a note for $500, which Rice gave him in 1894. Two years later he claimed Rice requested that he give him the note that he might compete the interest, and he never returned the paper, though he was frequently requested to do so. The parties live in Salem township.

Judge Boone has continued the Patterson-Pollard road case from Center township until Monday, March 11, at which time he will render his decision. The question at issue is, Shall a land owner who has no public road be granted a view from the township? John Patterson has no public way from his farm, but a private right of way closed by gates. He wants a township road over his line of private road, and it is claimed that he is entitled by law to one if he pays the damages assessed by the viewers.

A marriage license has been issued to David S. Lodge, of New Waterford, and Miss Elizabeth Mittinger, of Rogers.

POSITIVE PROOF.

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in East Liverpool.

Because it's evidence in East Liverpool.

It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor.

Investigation will confirm it.

Mr. S. C. Hill, Easter, Pa., carpenter, says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check it if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I ordered Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, what that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions?"

16TH YEAR. NO. 229.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1901.

TWO CENTS

TAX QUESTION A LIVE TOPIC

Many Persons Say the Millage Should Be Seduced Under New Appraisalment.

TWELVE MILLLS OBJECTED TO

Some Taxpayers Assert That, With Valuation Increased From $3,400,000 to $5,500,000, an Eight Mill Tax Would Be Enough.

The question of tax levy for East Liverpool under the new appraisalment has agitated the public to such an extent recently that a great many people are wondering what will be the outcome. Indeed, the feeling has become so intense that it is likely to be an issue in the coming contest for the position of councilmen.

Under the appraisalment of 1890 the valuation of real and personal property was $3,400,810. From time to time the millage has been increased in order to meet the growing expenses of running the city government. About six years ago it had reached 12 mills and has remained at that figure ever since.

The income under the old valuation was $40,809.72, and are barely adequate for the requirements of the city council. It is the opinion of many that the levy should not be higher than before, and enough people have interested themselves in the matter to cause a great deal of agitation.

The new appraisalment fixes the valuation at about $5,500,000, and it can readily be seen that if the levy is permitted to remain at 12 mills the increase will be enormous. From $40,809.72 the income will be raised to something like $66,000.

A majority of those who have been approached on the subject are of the opinion that eight mills would be about the proper levy. It is argued that the present amount should be increased somewhat, and the above figures would bring an increase of about $3,000.

A large number of taxpayers have been interviewed on the subject, including some of the largest property owners in the city, and while their opinions vary as to what the amount should be, they are unanimous in the belief that it would be unwise to allow the levy to remain at 12 mills under the late valuation.

In all probability a canvass will be made among the candidates for council in the various wards, in order that a distinct understanding may be obtained as to where they stand on the question, and just what the taxpayers may expect in case they are elected.

BOUGHT BY B. & O.

The Big Trunk Line Has Now Secured the Ohio River Road.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 9.—From an official source it is learned that the Baltimore & Ohio is about to purchase the Ohio River railroad, which extends from this city to Huntington, W. Va., and which also controls the short line extending through a soft coal field from New Martinsville on the Ohio river to Clarksburg in the very interior of the state.

The purpose in securing control of the Ohio River road is said to be an ambition to get exclusive control of the great coal fields, and the purchase is consequent upon its recent acquisition of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling. The Ohio River road is at present controlled by the Standard Oil interests. The J. Pierpont Morgan interests are seeking to control the soft coal production of the United States. They already control the Hocking Valley production, and as they are hand in glove with the Standard Oil interests and the moving power behind the Baltimore & Ohio, it would not be a difficult matter to have the Ohio River road pass into their control. This done, the entire

SURVEYORS AT WORK TODAY

The New Line to Be Double Track And With Little Grade—A Connection With the C. & P. for Pittsburg Now Hinted At.

Pittsburg, March 9.—An important step will be taken today by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company to establish a direct trunk line through Pittsburg as the main line to Chicago says the Dispatch this morning. A party of engineers will go into the field to locate the line of the Chicago cut-off from Smith's Ferry, Pa., to Canton, O., a distance of 60 miles. Preliminary surveys were made a year ago and the rights of way were subsenorth side, and the Baltimore and Ohio has no connection with the points traversed. In order to get into Pittsburg from Smith's Ferry either a new line must be built or some arrangements made with the Pennsylvania road to use the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks between these points. Nothing could be learned yesterday as to how the Baltimore and Ohio proposes to get into Pittsburg over the new route, but there have been rumors of an arrangement with the Pennsylvania road.

The engineering party to locate the new line arrived in Pittsburg yesterday. They are in charge of W. L. Sisson, locating engineer. The other engineers are: G. H. Earp, C. W. Brown, W. R. Koonce, A. V. Rollins, S. M. Johnson, K. Faust, T. A. Blays, W. Jennings, J. B. Trenholm, R. C. McComas and O. L. Meisse, all from Baltimore. They will go into the field today.

THE RAILROAD CONSIDERING THE CITY'S REQUESTS.

Demand for Light And Gates in East Liverpool Soon to Receive Attention.

At last the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad has been heard from in reference to the improvements which were ordered along that line in this city.

It will be remembered that council, at a meeting held some time ago, passed upon the question of requiring the Pennsylvania company to light the yards and place safety gates at several of the more dangerous crossings. The company was notified of the action, and it was thought by many that the order had been ignored entirely.

Clerk Hanley this morning received a lengthy communication from Superintendent Scriven, in which he sets forth that owing to the radical nature of the changes required by council it would take some time to do the work, and begged that the authorities bear with him yet a little longer. The superintendent was inclined to believe, however, that more lights were requested than were really necessary, and that half the number would be ample.

Mr. Scriven stated that the company was just now considering the advisability of erecting an electric light plant in Wellsville, and in case the plan was carried out, it would extend the lines to this city.

The communication will be considered at the next meeting of council Tuesday night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Arrangements Made for Conferring the Second Degree.

The local branch of the Knights of Columbus, at their meeting last Thursday evening, decided to confer the second degree at the meeting to be held April 3.

The organization is making elaborate preparations for a banquet to be held on Easter Monday. Arrangements are also in progress for a trip to Steubenville on March 20 to witness the conferring of the third degree by the lodge there.

The lodge will attend a lecture to be given by Father Halligan in Wellsville tomorrow evening. The order will go to the rooms of the Wellsville organization and from there they will accompany the sister lodge in a body to the church.

Harry Hunter left today on the noon train for Salem, where he has accepted a position in the pottery.

COLD WATER MEN NAME A TICKET

Seven Prohibitionists Meet and Nominate Township and City Candidates.

DECIDE TO INVITE MRS. NATION

Want the Saloon Smasher to Visit East Liverpool—Zeal And Enthusiasm Displayed at the Convention. Eleven Present at the Ratification.

Seven Prohibitionists assembled in Y. M. C. A. hall last evening to nominate a city and township ticket.

After a long and serious discussion they succeeded in their allotted task and the nominations were approved, unanimously by the seven men present and also by four others who arrived after the list of nominations had been completed.

The township ticket named was as follows:

Justices of the peace, Archie Searight and James McCormick; township trustee, J. C. McClane; township assessor, Hunter Croft; constable, H. C. Carroll.

For city officers these nominations were made:

Council, First ward, Jerry Dennis; Second ward, S. J. Faulk; Third ward, Ed Hassey; Fourth ward, J. S. Doak; Fifth ward, W. A. Andrews; assessor, First ward, Charles Alley; Second ward, Frank Anderson; Third ward, W. E. Mercer; Fourth ward, C. E. Faulk; Fifth ward, Frank White; board of education, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. W. H. Gladden.

The Prohibitionists began to gather at 7 o'clock and by 8 o'clock seven of them had arrived. After discussing Carrie Nation for an hour and deciding that they would extend to her an invitation to visit East Liverpool with her little hatchet, they proceeded to business, unanimously choosing S. J. Faulk chairman and W. A. Weaver secretary. The president then appointed the remaining five on a committee to nominate candidates. The committee proceeded to work with zeal and earnest deliberation. The nomination for justice was much discussed, but the committee finally arrived at the conclusion that Archie Searight could beat Carman, so the first nomination was made. They glided along smoothly over the rest of the ticket, none of the candidates named being present, until they came to Ed Hassey. He was present and objected to going on the ticket, but having admitted that he was willing to do anything to help he was nominated forthwith.

The only difficulty experienced was in finding sufficient members of the party to make up a ticket. When they came to the school board they had exhausted the list, and so nominated Rev. Mr. Taggart, who has just closed his second term as a Republican. The meeting then adjourned, confident of victory for the entire ticket.

Busler Sued Twice.

Irvin H. Busler, the C. & P. brakeman, now in jail on a charge of burglary preferred by Mrs. Leah Polen, of Center street, Wellsville, has been sued in 'Squire Mackenzie's court by Mrs. Polen for $10 borrowed money and a laundry bill of $1, and by M. B. Shingler for $19 50 due on a watch. The case will be heard on Monday.

A GHASTLY DISCOVERY MADE IN A CITY SCHOOL BUILDING.

While removing a box of geological specimens from the basement of the Third street school building about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Janitor Davidson discovered a human foot concealed in the top of the box immediately beneath the lid.

The box is about 18 inches square and was almost filled with small stones neatly wrapped in paper and labeled with the name of their particular class. The box has been in the basement of the building for several years and no one has yet been found who knows how and when it came there.

Some time ago a man named Jones, residing on Third street, was engaged to do some gas fitting at the building and reported to the janitor that he had seen the foot. Mr. Davidson paid no attention to the matter at the time, as James was of a superstitious turn. Yesterday he recalled the incident and resolved to investigate.

The teachers made a trip to the building this morning for the purpose of viewing the find. Misses Griggs, Thompson, Hall and Andrews were in the party.

The foot is undoubtedly that of a woman, from its size, and has been in the box for some time. It is hard and dry, being discolored from exposure, but most of the flesh is still upon the bones. From the appearance of the member it was cut from the leg as the stump is smooth and even.

The foot is still in the box and was viewed by a great many people during the day.

coal interests of Northern West Virginia would depend upon the Morgan interests for transportation.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

The $20,000 Lee-Brunt Damage Suit Comes to a Close.

C. S. Speaker, one of the attorneys in the case of W. K. Gaston, administrator of Dudley E. Lee, versus Geo. F. Brunt for $20,000 damages, gave out the information this afternoon that the case had been settled out of court. The consideration was $500.

UNION HELD A MEETING.

Street Railway Employees Still Holding Conferences.

A meeting of local union No. 52, Street Railway Employees, was held last evening. Mr. Reeves was present, but the members refused to talk today. Inquiry made at the office of the company was productive of no better results.

As matters now stand it is likely no settlement will be made before Monday, at which time it is thought another meeting will be held.

Deputy Sheriff Bick was in the city yesterday serving subpoenas in the Brunt damage suit, which comes up in Lisbon on March 12.

quently obtained. This line will reduce the distance to Chicago 28 miles, will avoid the heavy grades between those points, and will triple the hauling capacity of trains. A double track will be constructed from Smith's Ferry along Little Beaver creek, which it will cross in its windings many times. It will pass through West Point, O., where much valuable undeveloped coal land has been leased. It will also pass through Bayard and Minerva, O., and thus on to Canton.

Nowhere will there be a grade of more than 16 feet to the mile. The new road will pass through a country in which the scenery nearly all the way is beautiful. The construction of the road will be heavy, as no less than 10 tunnels and 15 bridges over Beaver creek, where the line crosses and recrosses, will have to be built. At Canton the new road connects with the present line of the Baltimore & Ohio. From Canton to Warwick a new low grade double track road has just been completed.

The Chicago division of the road has been much improved recently, so with the completion of the new line the road will have one of the most direct and finest double track systems in the country from Smith's Ferry to Chicago.

The new road, however, has still to be connected with Pittsburg from Smith's Ferry. The Cleveland and Pittsburg road follows the river on its

ADVERTISING AND HOME TRADE.

It pays to advertise well and often. John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of Philadelphia, is credited with spending several million dollars each year in newspaper advertising. He neither uses nor has faith in any other kind. There are single firms in Pittsburgh which spend from a quarter to a half million of dollars a year in advertising; it is needless to say that they do the largest business. East Liverpool merchants cannot be expected to do business on the scale of Philadelphia or even Pittsburgh business men, but they have found that it pays to advertise liberally. The steady growth of advertisements in the columns of the News Review shows that the wide-awake merchants have discovered a sure method of placing their announcements so that they will be read by the people whom they are intended to reach. The News Review is essentially a paper for the home and it goes into the homes of the best citizens, for the reason that it contains nothing unfit for family reading and is invariably well filled with entertaining local and general news. It is thoroughly alive, and that is why enterprising merchants make use of its columns.

Now a word to readers. You read the attractive display advertisements in the Pittsburgh papers and perhaps go to that city to do a considerable share of your shopping, when, nine times out of ten, you could buy the same goods on equally advantageous terms from the home merchants and save your time and railway fare. This is unfair treatment of men whom you know and respect, but it is the sort of treatment which merchants of many small cities have to put up with. Do those who do their trading away from home ever reflect that East Liverpool merchants are taxed for the support of East Liverpool schools and East Liverpool public improvements, while the Pittsburgh merchants are not? If dull times come it is the home merchant and not the outsider who is asked to give credit and tide the customer over his embarrassment.

The home merchants are among the best, most enterprising and public spirited of our citizens. They are constantly called upon for donations for church and charitable purposes, and their purses are always open. Yet perhaps the very same persons who solicit their aid in promoting this or that home institution, when they have a few dollars to spend in a store, go elsewhere to spend it. What have the merchants of our city done to deserve this sort of slight? It is far more satisfactory to deal with men whom you know and in whom you have confidence than with strangers. There are no better stores in any city of its size anywhere than right here in East Liverpool, and the customer who cannot find what he wants here must indeed be overfastidious. The way to make your town grow and prosper is to spend your money here, as far as possible. That is what local business men are doing, and the example they set is one which all should follow.

REVOLTING BARBARITY.

It is a revolting story of cruelty and injustice that comes from South Carolina. If half of it be true, prison gates should be yawning for the officials which have permitted such a state of affairs to exist. The grand jury of Anderson county in that state has made its report, characterizing the course of employers of colored labor as most iniquitous. Five plantation owners had stockades built for the negroes, whom they had under contract, and this is the description given of the way the men are treated: "The contract laborers work under armed guard, are kept locked up at night and all Sunday, and are whipped freely. Several guards are present for whipping these laborers cruelly, one man having received 100 lashes with a rawhide. They found some of the contracts with the place for time of service and rate of pay left blank, although signed by the negroes. This left them indefinitely in the power of the landlord without pay."

Men against whom no charges rest are alleged to have been kidnaped and placed in convict camps. One method of getting negroes is said to have been to get them out of jail on bond and work them in stockades until the time came for their trial. In this way men jailed for playing craps have been kept half a year in one stockade. The conditions prevailing are described as virtual slavery. They are a disgrace to twentieth century civilization. The convict lease system in the south has long been the source of iniquity and barbarity almost unparalleled in a civilized land, and it is to be hoped that the aroused sentiment of the enlightened people will now proceed to wipe it out, together with its shocking abuses.

The Prohibitionists have entered the lists with candidates for local offices. We admire the courage with which they stand by their principles, but we don't mind assuring them confidentially that when the Republican primaries have been held a ticket is as good as elected. All other entries will be found in the "also ran" class when results are counted up on election day.

Admiral Dewey received a warrant yesterday for $9,570 for the work which he performed at Manila bay, in a few hours, one May morning in 1898. And there's not a man in America mean enough to say that George got more than he deserved.

The legislature at Honolulu, U. S. A., falls naturally into American ways. Already its sergeant-at-arms is apparently its busiest official.

Salineville complains of a scarcity of candidates and no choice at the primaries which are being held today. For an Ohio town Salineville is as peculiar as Bret Harte's "Heathen Chinee."

OBITUARY.

Earl Locke.

Word was received in the city this morning of the death of Earl Locke at his home in New Castle. Mr. Locke was employed by the Erie Roofing company and for several weeks worked in this city placing a rock asbestos roof on the Laughlin No. 2 pottery and is well known here. H. A. Wilbur left this morning for New Castle to attend the funeral, which will take place tomorrow.

Martha Craven.

Martha Craven died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Craven, Minerva street, this morning, aged 2 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made at River-view cemetery.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

Elizabeth J. Hall entertained last evening at her home on Kossuth street. The party spent a pleasant evening. Light refreshments were served.

A number of friends of Bertram Harker were pleasantly entertained by him last evening at his home on Walnut street. The evening was enjoyably spent.

Miss Pearl Shives pleasantly entertained a large party of her young friends last evening at her home on Fifth street. Music and games made up the night's enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albright and Orville Sebring returned to their home in Sebring yesterday afternoon, after attending the reception of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Taylor.

Surprised by the Knights.

The Ladies of the Golden Eagle, at their meeting last night, initiated six new members, and received six applications. A pie social was served to the new members and the ladies were then surprised by the knights who served an oyster supper. A good time was had by all present.

Entertained by Mrs. Gipner.

Mrs. J. W. Gipner yesterday afternoon entertained the members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home on Robinson street. The attendance was large, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed.

ADVERTISING AND HOME TRADE.

It pays to advertise well and often. John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of Philadelphia, is credited with spending several million dollars each year in newspaper advertising. He neither uses nor has faith in any other kind. There are single firms in Pittsburgh which spend from a quarter to a half million of dollars a year in advertising; it is needless to say that they do the largest business. East Liverpool merchants cannot be expected to do business on the scale of Philadelphia or even Pittsburgh business men, but they have found that it pays to advertise liberally. The steady growth of advertisements in the columns of the News Review shows that the wide-awake merchants have discovered a sure method of placing their announcements so that they will be read by the people whom they are intended to reach. The News Review is essentially a paper for the home and it goes into the homes of the best citizens, for the reason that it contains nothing unfit for family reading and is invariably well filled with entertaining local and general news. It is thoroughly alive, and that is why enterprising merchants make use of its columns.

Now a word to readers. You read the attractive display advertisements in the Pittsburgh papers and perhaps go to that city to do a considerable share of your shopping, when, nine times out of ten, you could buy the same goods on equally advantageous terms from the home merchants and save your time and railway fare. This is unfair treatment of men whom you know and respect, but it is the sort of treatment which merchants of many small cities have to put up with. Do those who do their trading away from home ever reflect that East Liverpool merchants are taxed for the support of East Liverpool schools and East Liverpool public improvements, while the Pittsburgh merchants are not? If dull times come it is the home merchant and not the outsider who is asked to give credit and tide the customer over his embarrassment.

The home merchants are among the best, most enterprising and public spirited of our citizens. They are constantly called upon for donations for church and charitable purposes, and their purses are always open. Yet perhaps the very same persons who solicit their aid in promoting this or that home institution, when they have a few dollars to spend in a store, go elsewhere to spend it. What have the merchants of our city done to deserve this sort of slight? It is far more satisfactory to deal with men whom you know and in whom you have confidence than with strangers. There are no better stores in any city of its size anywhere than right here in East Liverpool, and the customer who cannot find what he wants here must indeed be overfastidious. The way to make your town grow and prosper is to spend your money here, as far as possible. That is what local business men are doing, and the example they set is one which all should follow.

REVOLTING BARBARITY.

It is a revolting story of cruelty and injustice that comes from South Carolina. If half of it be true, prison gates should be yawning for the officials which have permitted such a state of affairs to exist. The grand jury of Anderson county in that state has made its report, characterizing the course of employers of colored labor as most iniquitous. Five plantation owners had stockades built for the negroes, whom they had under contract, and this is the description given of the way the men are treated: "The contract laborers work under armed guard, are kept locked up at night and all Sunday, and are whipped freely. Several guards are present for whipping these laborers cruelly, one man having received 100 lashes with a rawhide. They found some of the contracts with the place for time of service and rate of pay left blank, although signed by the negroes. This left them indefinitely in the power of the landlord without pay."

Men against whom no charges rest are alleged to have been kidnaped and placed in convict camps. One method of getting negroes is said to have been to get them out of jail on bond and work them in stockades until the time came for their trial. In this way men jailed for playing craps have been kept half a year in one stockade. The conditions prevailing are described as virtual slavery. They are a disgrace to twentieth century civilization. The convict lease system in the south has long been the source of iniquity and barbarity almost unparalleled in a civilized land, and it is to be hoped that the aroused sentiment of the enlightened people will now proceed to wipe it out, together with its shocking abuses.

The Prohibitionists have entered the lists with candidates for local offices. We admire the courage with which they stand by their principles, but we don't mind assuring them confidentially that when the Republican primaries have been held a ticket as good as elected. LEHMAN'S LOSS.

A Carload of Horses Belonging to a Former Columbiana Man.

Lisbon, March 9.—Word has been received from H. S. Lehman, formerly of Columbiana, stating that he had met with an immense loss while on his way east from Humboldt, Kan.

Mr. Lehman started from Humboldt with a car load of horses which he expected to sell at Columbiana last Saturday. When about 300 miles this side of Humboldt he went back to see how the animals were getting along and found the car door open and all but 22 of the horses were gone. The train was stopped and backed up 20 miles, when the found five horses lying dead and on further back they found nine more and five of this number had to be killed.

The balance of them strayed away and could not be found. One mule was found grazing along the tracks. It is supposed that in some way the animals worked the door open and jumped out while the train was moving. Mr. Lehman refused to accept any one of the animals from the railroad company, holding it responsible. He returned to Kansas for another load.

Again in the Infirmary.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special).—Charles Carraher, of East Liverpool, who has just completed a 30-days' sentence in the Canton workhouse, is now in the infirmary.

EAST END.

TROUBLE WITH WIRES.

TELEPHONE SERVICE INTERRUPTED FOR A TIME.

Cause of a Buzzing Nobody Could Explain Was a Broken Wire—Dog Fatally Shocked.

Quite a little curiosity was aroused in the East End last night by the peculiar whirring of the telephones. No one happened to be curious enough to touch the metal part of the instruments, and no one found out what was the matter.

The telephone wire on the Columbiana line was broken and had fallen across an electric light wire, thus charging the 'phones with electricity. Mr. Thompson, the local manager of the Columbiana, arrived in the suburb a few minutes later and had the lights turned off while the wire was repaired.

The trolley wire just east of the railroad track had broken about the same time and street car traffic was delayed a few minutes.

This morning one of the arc lights in the orchard became detached and fell to the ground, taking the charged wire with it.

A large speckled hound belonging to Thomas May stuck his nose to the wire. It knocked the animal backward and he set up a miserable howl, which lasted until Officer Spence arrived and dispatched him. The owner says the hound was a very valuable one.

AN INJUSTICE TO HIM.

Mr. G. W. Wood States That His Business Was Misrepresented By East Enders.

George W. Wood, of G. W. Wood & Co., manufacturers, of Toledo, O., claims that an injustice was done him in an East End item which appeared in the News Review yesterday. Mr. Wood is selling an atomizer and also other rubber goods, and claims he is the agent alluded to in yesterday's item, although no name was mentioned. Mr. Wood has done business with leading citizens of East Liverpool for years and the News Review is assured by reputable business men that he is a square man and that the goods he sells are first class. They are sold at a uniform price and cannot be purchased at 75 cents or a dollar as asserted.

Mr. Wood has also letters from leading business houses all over the country, which shows that he is of excellent standing in the business world.

The News Review has no intention of reflecting unjustly on any person or injuring any man's business, and regrets that the reporter, to whom the information was given in good faith, did not investigate the story and get both sides of it.

EAST END MATTERS.

Rev. Mr. Snyder, of Calcutta, O., is visiting friends in the East End.

Henry Chambers will begin the erection of three new houses on Pennsylvania avenue as soon as the weather permits.

A number of East End residents are angry at a farmer from the vicinity of Clarkson, who, they think, sold them diseased meat a few days ago. He is expected back again soon and they will then try to have the matter investigated.

REPORTS OVERDRAWN.

This Nation's Attitude Toward Russia Not What Has Been Reported.

Washington, March 9.—Just to what extent our government has expressed itself to the other powers regarding the attitude of Russia in respect to the occupation of Manchuria, and what, if anything, has been received from the British foreign office, would not be divulged for publication by the officials here last night. Our government deems it inexpedient for the Chinese to make any independent arrangement with any foreign power while the peace negotiations are in progress at Peking. An identical note conveying these sentiments has been sent by the United States to each of the powers interested in the settlement of the conditions growing out of the Boxer troubles. The Chinese imperial government also has been acquainted with these sentiments. The statement was made very positively here last night that the United States is not in "secret negotiations" with any other power regarding China. Our practice in dealing with the Chinese situation uniformly has been to make known the attitude of the United States to all the nations interested and for this purpose identical notes have been sent to them when matters of great importance were under consideration. At the same time the intimation is conveyed that the London dispatches on the subject are overdrawn.

CLEAR OF ICE.

River Now Wholly Free of Obstruction—Flats of Coal Arrive Here.

The river was clear of ice this morning and the marks at the wharf registered 10 feet and stationary. The Virginia will be down tonight and the Kanawha, Ben Hur and Keystone State will be up tomorrow. The Robert Jenkins brought seven flats of coal to this city yesterday afternoon, the first coal coming to this city by river for some time.

No Threat to Denmark.

Washington, March 9.—An emphatic denial is given at the state department to the statement published in a London newspaper to the effect that the United States government has addressed a note, "almost threatening in tone," to the Danish government, declaring that it will not permit a transfer of the Danish West Indies to any foreign power.

Four Ministers

Tell of Magical Results Brought About in Burning, Itching, Bleeding Skin Troubles by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. Chase's Ointment draws more praise from ministers, physicians and lawyers than any other medicine in the world. It is endorsed by every profession.

Extracts from their Letters.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister, 109 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "For over fifteen years the itching piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me, and frequently, too, the suffering has become intense. At times there was bleeding and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have derived from Dr. Chase's Ointment have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it."

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, Albion, Wis., writes: "My wife was terribly afflicted with protruding piles and contemplated a surgical operation when her notice was drawn to Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a cure." "I then used it for an unsightly and troublesome skin affection, which had baffled medical skill for twenty-five years. Dr. Chase's Ointment thoroughly cured it. For piles and skin disease it is worth its weight in gold."

Rev. J. A. Baldwin, Baptist minister, Arkona, Ont., writes: "For over twenty years I was a great sufferer from itching and protruding piles. I used many remedies and underwent three very painful surgical operations, all without obtaining any permanent benefit. When about to give up in despair I was told to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and did so, finding relief at once. I used three boxes, and am entirely cured. The itching is all gone. I have advised others to use it, believing it would cure them as it has me."

Rev. Chas. Fish, Methodist minister, 192 Dunn avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "Ten years ago eczema began on my ears and spread over my head and hands. During that time I was a great sufferer. I tried many remedies, and some of the best physicians—specialists on skin diseases—treated me. The first box of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave much relief and five boxes completely cured me. I think my cure a marvel, and gladly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment." Just as good for every form of skin trouble, no matter how long standing, 50 cents a box, all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

POLLED THE TOWN

Anti-Incorporation People Claim That Their Side Will Be the Winning One.

BIG PROPERTY OWNERS' VIEWS

They Say the Town Must Incorporate to Improve And Keep Order—No Need for Higher Taxes—Arguments of the Opposition.

As incorporation is now the topic of all-absorbing interest in Chester the News Review gives the entire space allotted to Southside news to interviews with taxpayers and voters.

W. H. Riley and T. C. Cunningham polled the town yesterday and claim that the result indicates a decided majority for the oppositon.

The enumerators say the result of their investigation was as follows: For incorporation, 20; against, 40; doubtful, 18. This does not indicate a complete canvass, as there are probably 150 voters in the town.

Among the prominent men interviewed were the following, who are the heaviest property holders on the Southside: C. A. Smith, Colonel John N. Taylor, Edwin M. Knowles, Joseph G. Lee, W. L. Smith, J. E. McDonald, William Banfield, John Shrader and E. D. Marshall. Their views are practically alike and the combined substance of their statements was about as follows:

"Incorporation would insure decency, sobriety and good order, which do not exist at this time because of no police protection. No firm, corporation or municipality can exist and grow without proper organization. A number of people in East Liverpool who own vacant lots in Chester would build handsome houses there and become citizens if the town was incorporated and could insure proper police protection. It is a deplorable but well known fact that two persons were murdered in Chester during the past two years, and the culprits walked away, while there was not even the formality of a trial. Drunkenness, debauchery, gambling and fights are now of almost daily occurrence and there are no officers to make an arrest or file a complaint. If Chester is to prosper and grow it can only be done by incorporation.

"With incorporation would come some much needed improvements, such as lights on the principal streets, sidewalks, etc. These matters would be controlled by the representatives of the people in council and would not be more extensive than the people themselves desire.

"Some are opposed to the measure because they think that increased taxes would swamp them and cause them to lose their homes. In this they are mistaken, as the act of incorporation itself would not increase taxes. The town council would control that. Further, all of the tax on property, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, now goes to the county, while a large part of this fund would be retained and spent in local improvements if the town were incorporated. The fines for misdemeanors, which would be paid into the town treasury, would more than pay the expenses of the police department.

"Capitalists who would be glad to invest many thousands of dollars in factories and homes here are awaiting incorporation. As a matter of business they cannot risk the investment of capital in a town without a government, and where both person and property are without protection.

"It is a singular fact that most of the opposition is among people who have never done anything to advance the interests of the town and who would have the least of the burden of taxation to bear.

"Chester must either be incorporated or remain without improvements or future developments."

Among the persons interviewed who were opposed to incorporation were the following, all of whom are taxpayers and voters:

O. O. Allison—I am in favor of incorporation when the proper time comes, but not now. I do not think it just to compel people to pay city tax on property that can never be improved, and exempt valuable and improved property which has been left outside by the promoters of the incorporation scheme. I do not think it would be to the interests of the common people, many of whom are striving to pay for their homes and would be swamped by the increased taxation that would necessarily follow. In the past we have been in great need of protection from lawlessness and crime, but at present we have a justice's court and constable located in the village, who, with the aid of good citizens, can and will preserve peace and order.

T. R. Cunningham—I am in favor of incorporation when the proper time comes. We are too young yet. Our population is only 760.

W. H. Riley, a heavy taxpayer—I am opposed to it because the plot includes some land almost valueless and leaves out adjacent land of great value. Rent payers will vote against the measure, which is sure to be defeated, because it will increase rent from one-third to one-half.

J. C. Cunningham—I believe the measure will be defeated, because there are too few property owners to pay the increased taxes which would necessarily follow without raising rents so high that the renters and home seekers would locate in the new town down the river or elsewhere. I believe if the town is incorporated it will have less population in a year than now.

Samuel Allison—I am in favor of incorporation if done in the right way, not showing so much partiality as in the present survey. For the present I am opposed to it. It is too young a town yet. When the right time comes I will favor it. You take a child when too young and keep it on its feet too much and it will be bow-legged.

The assets of the Potters, it will be seen, foot up over $1,000,000.00 and the contingent fund now amounts to over $27,500, showing conclusively the strength and safety of this old institution. The fact that nearly $400,000 of loans was placed this last year also shows that the company's plan of loaning money is viewed by our people as both equitable and desirable. We are sure the 3,200 members of the Potters' may well feel proud of their company and look forward to the coming year with assurance of continued growth.

THE TAX QUESTION

CAUSING CONSIDERABLE COMMENT.

Henry E. Bullock Figures Out How the Receipts Can Be Kept Up And the Levy Down.

With the approach of the Republican city primary election also comes, especially from the citizens of the resident portion of the city, considerable discussion as to what will be done by the incoming council in order to give them relief in the way of taxes from the enormous increase in the appraisalment of their property.

Workmen who are owners of property which has been increased from 70 to 90 per cent, are asking "Will our taxes be increased accordingly and what move can we make to prevent it?"

Henry E. Bullock, who is a candidate for council in the First ward, has ever since the books were turned over to the city decennial appraisalment board, made a study of this question. He has previously shown the property owners that the resident property has been appraised greatly in excess, according to value of business property. Now that the state board of equalization has failed to give us any relief, it now behooves us to look somewhere else. Mr. Bullock today made the following statement:

"The only way in which I can find relief for the people is to keep down the next year tax levy, a portion of which will be made by the council. In 1900 the total appraisalment in this city was $2,588,460 and the entire levy was 31.8 mills. This brought in a total revenue of $82,313, which was divided up among the school, state, county, city and poor funds. The entire levy was divided as follows: State, 2.9 mills; county, 5.1 mills, school, 11.7 mills; poor .1 and the city 12 mills.

"The total valuation under the new appraisalment is $4,402,161, as can easily be seen an enormous increase. If we reduce the levy from 31.8 to 20 mills we will then pay in taxes $88,043, or an increase in the receipts for all the funds of $5,730. I think that this increase is surely enough and am in favor of bringing the levy down to about this levy if it can possibly be done.

"Last year the city's portion was $31,061, from the real estate alone, which is my basis for all this, and with the increased valuation we can reduce this levy to 7½ mills and then increase the receipts $1,954.

"Of course, we receive a substantial amount from the tax on personal property, but that does not enter into this increased appraisalment question. If we can get a reduction in the levy on each fund we ought to materially keep down the taxes until we get a chance to have the appraisalment equalized by the city equalizing board, the members of which are also appointed by the council, and whom, Prosecutor Brookes claims, have the power to do this. The city equalizers should be made to assert themselves on this before the council appoints them."

"THE FRENCH SHORE."

Where Misery, Squalor, Hunger and Cold Rule in Newfoundland.

Misery, squalor and wretchedness, accentuated by an almost ceaseless struggle with hunger and cold, are the portion of the inhabitants of the "North Shore," in Newfoundland. Their little hamlets are perched in the rifts in the almost unbroken hills, and the fierce storms sweep the surface almost to their doorsteps, while for seven months of the year their coast is blockaded with ice and they are cut off from all communication with the outside world.

The only industry is codfishing, and cod is the sole medium of exchange. The people rarely see money, and barter is the system of trading, a quintal of cod being the unit of value. The needs of the fisher folk are only supplied by the itinerant trader, his schooner being laden with provisions, clothing and fishing appliances. Thus have these people lived for generations. They are ignorant, for the means of education are nonexistent, the children being content with what satisfied their fathers. The common objects of everyday life are unknown to them. They have neither horses nor cattle. Only a few of the older folk who have ventured south have any knowledge of these things.

There are no roads and therefore no vehicles. Travel is by boat during the summer and over the ice floes during the rest of the year. The few letters for the clergy and others who can read are conveyed to the settlements by dog teams during the winter, and save for the fortnightly visit of the mailboat during the period of open navigation, a steamer is never seen by the residents.

With such marvels as electric telegraphs, telephones and electric light they are of course unfamiliar, and their standard of intelligence is best indicated by stating that it is not unusual to find a justice of the peace who cannot write his own name.—Chambers' Journal.

Something In a Name.

The advantages that fall to the lot of a man whose surname occurs early in an alphabetical list are well known. As a candidate for office upon an Australian ballot, for example, a man named Abbott has a far better chance than the most eminent Zweigler. But the benefit that comes from the possession of a short name has not heretofore been generally recognized. Not long ago the promotion of one of the auditors of the treasury department at Washington created a vacancy to which, upon a formal recommendation to that effect, the candidate having the shortest name, being also a competent man, was appointed. His chief duty is to affix his signature to accounts, and as he needs to make but six letters in signing he can do twice as much in a day as a man whose name contains 12 letters.—Youth's Companion.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1899.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $35 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.

The only industry is codfishing, and cod is the sole medium of exchange. The people rarely see money, and barter is the system of trading, a quintal of cod being the unit of value. The needs of the fisher folk are only supplied by the itinerant trader, his schooner being laden with provisions, clothing and fishing appliances. Thus have these people lived for generations. They are ignorant, for the means of education are nonexistent, the children being content with what satisfied their fathers. The common objects of everyday life are unknown to them. They have neither horses nor cattle. Only a few of the older folk who have ventured south have any knowledge of these things.

There are no roads and therefore no vehicles. Travel is by boat during the summer and over the ice floes during the rest of the year. The few letters for the clergy and others who can read are conveyed to the settlements by dog teams during the winter, and save for the fortnightly visit of the mailboat during the period of open navigation, a steamer is never seen by the residents.

With such marvels as electric telegraphs, telephones and electric light they are of course unfamiliar, and their standard of intelligence is best indicated by stating that it is not unusual to find a justice of the peace who cannot write his own name.—Chambers' Journal.

Something in a Name.

The advantages that fall to the lot of a man whose surname occurs early in an alphabetical list are well known. As a candidate for office upon an Australian ballot, for example, a man named Abbott has a far better chance than the most eminent Zweigler. But the benefit that comes from the possession of a short name has not heretofore been generally recognized. Not long ago the promotion of one of the auditors of the treasury department at Washington created a vacancy to which, upon a formal recommendation to that effect, the candidate having the shortest name, being also a competent man, was appointed. His chief duty is to affix his signature to accounts, and as he needs to make but six letters in signing he can do twice as much in a day as a man whose name contains 12 letters.—Youth's Companion.

What Hurt Her.

Mrs. Heartless—Just to think my husband fell and broke—and broke—

Mrs. Simpythetik There, dear; I heard all about it. The poor man broke his leg. It's a great affliction, I know, but—

Mrs. Heartless—Oh, I didn't mean that! You haven't heard the worst. He was carrying my new Venetian vase when he fell, and broke it too.—Ohio State Journal.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1893.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $32 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.

C. L. MAGEE IS DEAD

A Prominent Pennsylvania Man
Passed Away After a Long Illness.

HIS DEATH MOST UNEXPECTED

He Was Reported Improving When
There Came a Sudden Change for the Worse—Long Conspicuous in Business And Politics.

Harrisburg, March 9.—Senator Christopher Lyman Magee, of Pittsburgh, editor, statesman, philanthropist and financier, died here, after an illness of more than two years. His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Thursday night and the members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. He gradually grew weaker during the night and his end was peaceful and calm, about 5:22 Friday afternoon.

His remains, it was expected, were to be taken to Pittsburgh about 3 o'clock this afternoon on a special car.

Some Members of Family With Him.

There were with Senator Magee when he died his wife and her sister, Mrs. Warwick; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Magee (latter his brother and wife); Steel Magee and Mr. and Mrs. John Steel, of Pittsburgh. Drs. Browning and Wilson, of Philadelphia, were also with him.

Senator Magee was taken ill with a complication of diseases during the last session of the legislature and was almost under the constant care of a physician until he passed away. During most of the time he was at the Stratford hotel, Philadelphia. He leased a residence in Harrisburg for the legislative session and came here the day previous to the organization. He took his seat on the opening day of the session and only once afterward appeared in the senate. That was the day on which the ballot for United States senator was taken and he voted for Congressman John Dalzell, of Pittsburgh. He kept in close touch with the legislative proceedings, but was too ill to attend the sessions.

The death, it was expected, will be formally announced in the senate on Monday night and the customary adjournment, it was expected, will be taken out of respect to his memory. Committees from the senate and house, it was expected, will be appointed to attend the funeral.

Governor Stone, who knew Mr. Magee intimately for many years, said last night:

"There is no man in Pennsylvania whose death could cause more grief and be a greater public loss than that of Senator Magee. He was an honest, fearless, able man, who built up his own record and who leaves behind him a great host of personal friends, who, upon many occasions, have experienced evidences of his friendship, and who will cherish his memory with sincere gratitude. In a private way, without attracting the attention of the public, he did much for charity and much for the poor, more than those whose names are extolled for public beneficence. I have always admired him, have always respected him, and feel in his death a personal loss."

His Death Was Unexpected.

His death was unexpected, as it was generally believed by his friends that he was improving in health. His condition took a turn for the worse Monday night, and some members of his family were hurriedly summoned to Harrisburg. His end was peaceful and calm.

Mr. Magee was born in Pittsburgh in 1848. Through the death of his father he was obliged to go to work when 15 years old, to help support his mother and three younger children. After a period of office boy he obtained a clerkship, and in 1869 he was made cashier in the city treasury, and in 1871 was elected city treasurer, and was re-elected in 1874. He was elected state senator in 1892, and was twice re-elected. He was a director in numerous Pittsburgh banks, trust companies and insurance companies, and at the time of his death was the principal owner of the Pittsburgh Times. He was also president of the Consolidated Traction company.

WHEAT ABUNDANT.

According to Dun's Report—The Rise
in Iron And Steel Attracts Attention.

New York, March 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Little change was developed this week in the condition of general business. Ground recently gained seemed to be held without difficulty, with a good distribution of merchandise by jobbers in most directions, and with entire absence of speculative activity. There has been a further decline in cotton, which does not help the goods market, still the most backward and disappointing of all the great industries, but in mechanical lines the progress being made is noteworthy. Building materials, including lumber, are in especially urgent demand, and dealers who can deliver stock have no difficulty in securing advanced prices. In this, unlike most other lines of business, the east leads the country, and just at this season it is of particular significance. Collections are reported good all through the west and are better than usual at the south.

Conditions in iron and steel begin to assume an appearance similar to that of 1899. Prices have moved upward rapidly since the turn was made, and bids at current rates for distant delivery are often refused. Manufacturers are unanimous in reporting a great demand for domestic consumption, while export contracts for finished forms are still taken in competition with declining foreign markets. It is at such time, when the outlook is brightest and quotations advancing sharply, that the conservative man becomes cognizant of one fact, that there is always danger of inflation when optimism goes beyond bounds. Granting that there is not a cloud on the horizon, it is well to remember that exports of iron and steel have been smaller of late and yet the present production is far in excess of domestic consumption, even allowing a moderate increase over previous years. Production of coke expands, and shipments are only limited by car shortage.

Two large failures in wool occurred abroad, and three Vermont concerns were forced to suspend. Sales of wool at three chief eastern markets decreased nearly 3,000,000 pounds, compared with the previous week's business, but this is a favorable symptom, as excessive operations of late were due to forced sales at lower prices.

Wheat is in abundant supply, with quotations well above last year's, owing to reports that Hessian fly promises to be unusually troublesome, while weather conditions are also threatening. Atlantic exports of wheat, flour included, were 2,477,990 bushels for the week, against 1,781,895 a year ago; while corn exports were 3,357,438 bushels, against 2,183,218 in 1900. Heavy supplies of coffee at last prevailed over manipulation and prices declined.

Failures for the week were 208 in the United States, against 205 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 33 last year.

SOME ANIMATED SPECULATION.

Money Market Was Rather Easy Friday
Weak Bank Statement Expected Today.

New York, March 9.—There was a very animated speculation in a few of the most prominent industrial in the market Friday and some large operations in one or two railroad stocks. The day's activities were much congested in the quarters indicated.

Sugar and Amalgamated Copper was most prominent in the dealings. The market was weak all around at the opening on a continuation of Thursday's realizing movement. Union Pacific especially was carried down 1%. The large buying of special stocks checked the downward tendency and caused general recoveries. Among the notable gains made by individual stocks were Burlington, 2%; St. Louis and San Francisco, 2%; do second preferred, 3%; Chicago and Eastern Illinois, 2%; Rio Grande and Western preferred, 2%; Chesapeake and Ohio, 2; Pressed Steel Car, 3%;

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

New York Airbrake, 7; Consolidated Gas, 4; Brooklyn Union Gas, 3½; Glucose and Pullman, 2½; Ice preferred, 2, and the local traction stocks, except Manhattan, from 2½ to 3¼.

The steel stocks continued neglected, as for several days past. The money market remained rather easy, although the indications were for a weak bank statement today. The sub-treasury has taken $4,232,000 from the market, while the movement on balance to the interior is small. There have been some large local movements of money incident to corporate operations, and it is felt that these may complicate the result, as they did last week. The change in the loan item is also much in doubt, owing to the large transactions of the week. Some banks have called loans to a large extent, while others have increased them freely.

The railroad bond market continues quite active and the movement of prices was irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,170,000.

United States 5s advanced ¼ per cent on the last call.

POSITIVE PROOF.

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in East Liverpool.

Because it's evidence in East Liverpool.

It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor.

Investigation will confirm it.

Mr. S. C. Hill, Easter, Pa., carpenter, says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check it if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I ordered Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured.

To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions?"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

GRANTED A DIVORCE

Mrs. Dingley, of Salem, Legally
Separated From Her Youngstown Husband.

MAN A WELL KNOWN MERCHANT

Ellen Farmer, Who Was Married 28
Years Ago, Finds Wedded Life a
Failure And Claims She Was Deserted—Road case Before Court.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—Mrs. Celia Dingley, of Salem, was granted a divorce yesterday afternoon from John Dingley, of Youngstown. The case was devoid of sensational features. Mrs. Dingley was given her divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty and was granted alimony in the sum of $900. The husband will have the care of three minor children. Mr. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant. Dingley is a Youngstown merchant of prominence.

Ellen I. Farmer was in court yesterday afternoon and told the court of her family troubles with Cicero Farmer. The judge also gave her a divorce. Twenty-eight years ago the couple were married in Salem and they are the parents of five children. Mrs. Farmer says the defendant abandoned her without cause and for several years has neglected her. She said that owing to her failing health she was unable to earn enough to keep herself.

The week's session of common pleas court adjourned last evening until Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of John H. Blake against George Rice returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $552 60. A motion was made for a new trial. Blake held a note for $500, which Rice gave him in 1894. Two years later he claimed Rice requested that he give him the note that he might compete the interest, and he never returned the paper, though he was frequently requested to do so. The parties live in Salem township.

Judge Boone has continued the Patterson-Pollard road case from Center township until Monday, March 11, at which time he will render his decision. The question at issue is, Shall a land owner who has no public road be granted a view from the township? John Patterson has no public way from his farm, but a private right of way closed by gates. He wants a township road over his line of private road, and it is claimed that he is entitled by law to one if he pays the damages assessed by the viewers.

A marriage license has been issued to David S. Lodge, of New Waterford, and Miss Elizabeth Mittinger, of Rogers.

AN APPEAL TAKEN.

Trouble Over Furniture Held by a
Salem Officer—Receiver Asked
for Wellsville I. O. R.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—The case of the Manufacturing Display company against James M. Reed, constable of Salem, was appealed thus morning from Mayor Huxley's court in Salem. The company filed the suit to replevin a number of rolltop desks and chiffonieres, which, it was claimed, were being wrongly detained by Reed. The town court held that the writ should hold as to the desks, but not as to the furniture and gave Reed judgment for costs.

George Swaile has sued the Beacon Light Tent, No. 12, I. O. R., of Wellsville, asking the court to give him judgment for $86.65 and to appoint a receiver to take charge of its property. Swaile is a member of the order and claims to be entitled to the amount he asks, as due him from the benefit fund. From March 15 to October 1, 1900, Swaile was sick and unable to work. During this time he says the order paid him only $29.35, when he should be drawing $4 a week after the second week. He says that the tent has now ceased to hold meetings and that some of the members, in violation of the laws of the order, have divided the money among them.

Inherited.

"Pa," said little Willie, looking up from his arithmetic, "what is a linear foot?"

"Why—er—a linear foot," replied pa, temporizing. "why, it's one that's hereditary. Didn't you never hear tell of a linear descendant?"

A GRAVE SITUATION

Crisis In Chinese Affairs May Lead to Trouble With Russia.

CZAR'S ATTITUDE SUSPECTED

The Bear Thought to Be Preparing to Establish Himself Permanently in Manchuria—An Anglo-American Conference Reported.

London, March 9.—A crisis has arisen in far eastern affairs which, in the opinion of the British government, is graver almost than the troubles which originally turned the eyes of the world toward the Orient. In this crisis secret negotiations are going on between the United States and Great Britain with a view to thwarting what both governments appear to consider a determined attempt on the part of Russia to plant herself permanently in one of the richest tracts of the Chinese empire.

Choate and Lansdowne Conferred.

The conference held Wednesday between United States Ambassador Choate and Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secretary, had nothing to do with the Nicaraguan canal affair. To quote from a British official, "The Nicaraguan controversy is a minor matter compared with the present situation." What Mr. Choate did was to receive from Lord Lansdowne an important message declaring that Great Britain was not satisfied with Russia's declaration regarding Manchuria, as delivered to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador at St. Petersburg, by Count Lamsdorf, and asking the United States if they were prepared to take joint action of such a decisive nature that Russia would have no alternative but to recede from her position.

Almost simultaneously, the Associated Press understands, the United States government instructed the various ambassadors to take similar steps.

The answer of Secretary Hay has apparently not yet been received in London, although the fact that almost concurrent instructions were issued from Washington is taken here to be a sufficient guarantee that Russia's action in Manchuria will not be tolerated by the United States.

Japan is relied upon to take a line in harmony with the United States and Great Britain.

Germany's Attitude Considered Doubtful.

Germany, in spite of the Anglo-German compact, is regarded as rather doubtful, owing to Emperor William's friendship for the czar. France, of course, will side with her ally.

The significance of the present phase can only be appreciated by those cognizant of the lethargic attitude of the British government hitherto regarding Russian action in China. Within the last few days, all this has changed. What a week or two ago was pronounced only in line with Russia's usual policy is now termed "a grave and serious state of affairs."

Lord Lansdowne is using every effort to bring the powers into line, in order to present to Russia such a menacing front that, without any ambiguity regarding temporary or other occupation, she may give up all designs upon Manchuria.

What prompts the British foreign office to take such an alarmist view of circumstances, usually looked upon as fatalistic sequences, is the apprehension that Russia, having held her own in spite of the protest of the ministers of the powers to the Chinese government, and having put herself on record in the reply to Sir Charles Scott as determined on at least a temporary occupation of Manchuria, will refuse to back down.

That she must do so Lord Lansdowne considers vital both for the future of China and for the continued existence of the concert of powers.

Count Lansdorf's reply to Sir Charles Scott is considered quite unsatisfactory. "If such excuses are accepted by the powers," said a British official to a representative of the Associated Press, "there will be nothing to prevent the immediate partition of China, for with almost exactly the same verbiage, any European power could justify the occupation of other provinces."

Alleged to Be Guarded With Secrecy.

Upon the degree of support afforded the movement by Germany and Japan depends the result of what is understood to be the almost synchronous action of Washington and London. The whole affair is guarded with the greatest secrecy, and it was not apparently without motive that a special dispatch was allowed to go from London erroneously announcing that the negotiations going on between Mr. Choate and Lord Lansdowne related to the Nicaraguan affair.

A feeling pervades inner circles here that if Count Lansdorf's explanation is accepted by the powers, Russia will be accorded a free hand to take all she pleases, and the door will be opened to any other power aggressive enough to step in and annex Chinese provinces under the pretext of temporary occupation.

Berlin, March 9.—The German press believes that Russia's assurances regarding Manchuria to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador in St. Petersburg, are insincere and intended to blind the world.

The National Zeitung frankly asserts that this is their object.

DEATHS IN PHILIPPINES.

List of Killed Sent by General MacArthur—Also Names of a Number of Wounded.

Washington, March 9.—General MacArthur's latest casualty list is as follows:

Killed—Sept. 20, San Miguel de Mayumo, Luzon, Co. A, 35th I., Charles A. Baker; March 3, near Silang, Luzon, Co. D, 46th I., Sergeant Walter A. Gilmore.

Wounded—Jan. 4, Mt. Lsarob, Luzon, Co. E, 47th I., Corporal Thomas L. Casey, wounded in arm, serious; Feb. 24, San Vicente, Luzon, Troop F, 3d C., Charles W. Larzelare, wounded in thigh, moderate.

MRS. W. L. MEWAN DEAD.

Wife of the Pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 9.—Mrs. Elizabeth Watson McEwan died at her home, No. 836 South Negley avenue. Mrs. McEwan was the wife of the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian church. Her death was due to heart disease, from which she had suffered for several years. It was not until some five months ago, however, that she was confined to the house by her ailment. Friday was the birthday of her youngest child, William L., Jr. Mrs. McEwan was born in Frankfort, Ky., 41 years ago and was married to the Rev. McEwan 15 years ago. Mr. McEwan and his wife came here in 1894, and have remained ever since.

The deceased was a devoted Christian and worker in the church, and had greatly endeared herself to the congregation of the Third Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Sarah, aged 11 years, and her son, William L., Jr. The funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon about 4 o'clock. The remains will be started to Frankfort tonight and interment will be made there on Monday morning.

Rubber Factory For Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., March 9.—The Mahoning Rubber company, which was recently incorporated under the laws of this state, with a capital of $400,000, organized by the election of the following officers: President, H. K. Wick; vice president, A. E. Adams; secretary and treasurer, John Tod; manager, James McClurg. Steps will be taken to secure a site and erect a factory. The company will manufacture mechanical rubber goods.

Abolished Cuban Export Tobacco Duty.

Washington, March 9.—The president issued an executive order abolishing the Cuban export duty on tobacco from April 1 next. This action was taken on the earnest recommendation of the Cuban economic commission, which recently visited Washington, endorsed by General Wood.

Frick Gives 5,000 to Mercy Hospital.

Pittsburg, March 9.—H. C. Frick donated $5,000 to the Mercy hospital for a children's ward. Other contributions are shortly expected and another addition to the hospital will likely be built.

FOUR SETS OF PAPERS.

Much Trouble Experienced in Getting at Young Farmer's Cash.

A great deal of trouble has been experienced in locating the guardian of Wyllie Farmer. A suit was brought in the court of Justice McCarron some time ago to recover a board bill. Money coming to Farmer as interest from the Porters' National bank was attached. It was said at that time that the building and loan association was custodian of the money. This was not the case, and Mrs. E. O. Walters was served with a garnishee. When it was learned that she also was the wrong party, the authorities almost despaired of getting the money.

About this time it was learned that Mrs. L. H. Hawkins was the guardian of Farmer and the fourth set of papers were served.

A GRAVE SITUATION

Crisis In Chinese Affairs May Lead to Trouble With Russia.

CZAR'S ATTITUDE SUSPECTED

The Bear Thought to Be Preparing to Establish Himself Permanently in Manchuria—An Anglo-American Conference Reported.

London, March 9.—A crisis has arisen in far eastern affairs which, in the opinion of the British government, is graver almost than the troubles which originally turned the eyes of the world toward the Orient. In this crisis secret negotiations are going on between the United States and Great Britain with a view to thwarting what both governments appear to consider a determined attempt on the part of Russia to plant herself permanently in one of the richest tracts of the Chinese empire.

Choate and Lansdowne Conferred.

The conference held Wednesday between United States Ambassador Choate and Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secretary, had nothing to do with the Nicaraguan canal affair. To quote from a British official, "The Nicaraguan controversy is a minor matter compared with the present situation." What Mr. Choate did was to receive from Lord Lansdowne an important message declaring that Great Britain was not satisfied with Russia's declaration regarding Manchuria, as delivered to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador at St. Petersburg, by Count Lamsdorf, and asking the United States if they were prepared to take joint action of such a decisive nature that Russia would have no alternative but to recede from her position.

Almost simultaneously, the Associated Press understands, the United States government instructed the various ambassadors to take similar steps.

The answer of Secretary Hay has apparently not yet been received in London, although the fact that almost concurrent instructions were issued from Washington is taken here to be a sufficient guarantee that Russia's action in Manchuria will not be tolerated by the United States.

Japan is relied upon to take a line in harmony with the United States and Great Britain.

Germany's Attitude Considered Doubtful.

Germany, in spite of the Anglo-German compact, is regarded as rather doubtful, owing to Emperor William's friendship for the czar. France, of course, will side with her ally.

The significance of the present phase can only be appreciated by those cognizant of the lethargic attitude of the British government hitherto regarding Russian action in China. Within the last few days, all this has changed. What a week or two ago was pronounced only in line with Russia's usual policy is now termed "a grave and serious state of affairs."

Lord Lansdowne is using every effort to bring the powers into line, in order to present to Russia such a menacing front that, without any ambiguity regarding temporary or other occupation, she may give up all designs upon Manchuria.

What prompts the British foreign office to take such an alarmist view of circumstances, usually looked upon as fatalistic sequences, is the apprehension that Russia, having held her own in spite of the protest of the ministers of the powers to the Chinese government, and having put herself on record in the reply to Sir Charles Scott as determined on at least a temporary occupation of Manchuria, will refuse to back down.

That she must do so Lord Lansdowne considers vital both for the future of China and for the continued existence of the concert of powers.

Count Lamsdorf's reply to Sir Charles Scott is considered quite unsatisfactory. "If such excuses are accepted by the powers," said a British official to a representative of the Associated Press, "there will be nothing to prevent the immediate partition of China, for with almost exactly the same verbiage, any European power could justify the occupation of other provinces."

Alleged to Be Guarded With Secrecy.

Upon the degree of support afforded the movement by Germany and Japan depends the result of what is understood to be the aim of a synchronous action of Washington and London. The whole affair is guarded with the greatest secrecy, and it was not apparently without motive that a special dispatch was allowed to go from London erroneously announcing that the negotiations going on between Mr. Choate and Lord Lansdowne related to the Nicaraguan affair.

A feeling pervades inner circles here that if Count Lamsdorf's explanation is accepted by the powers, Russia will be accorded a free hand to take all she pleases, and the door will be opened to any other power aggressive enough to step in and annex Chinese provinces under the pretext of temporary occupation.

Berlin, March 9.—The German press believes that Russia's assurances regarding Manchuria to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador in St. Petersburg, are insincere and intended to blind the world.

The National Zeitung frankly asserts that this is their object.

DEATHS IN PHILIPPINES.

List of Killed Sent by General MacArthur—Also Names of a Number of Wounded.

Washington, March 9.—General MacArthur's latest casualty list is as follows:

Killed—Sept. 20, San Miguel de Mayumo, Luzon, Co. A, 35th I., Charles A. Baker; March 3, near Silang, Luzon, Co. D, 46th I., Sergeant Walter A. Gilmore.

Wounded—Jan. 4, Mt. Lsaro, Luzon, Co. E, 47th I., Corporal Thomas L. Casey, wounded in arm, serious; Feb. 24, San Vicente, Luzon, Troop F, 3d C., Charles W. Larzelare, wounded in thigh, moderate.

MRS. W. L. MEWAN DEAD.

Wife of the Pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 9.—Mrs. Elizabeth Watson McEwan died at her home, No. 836 South Negley avenue. Mrs. McEwan was the wife of the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian church. Her death was due to heart disease, from which she had suffered for several years. It was not until some five months ago, however, that she was confined to the house by her ailment. Friday was the birthday of her youngest child, William L., Jr. Mrs. McEwan was born in Frankfort, Ky., 41 years ago and was married to the Rev. McEwan 15 years ago. Mr. McEwan and his wife came here in 1894, and have remained ever since.

The deceased was a devoted Christian and worker in the church, and had greatly endeared herself to the congregation of the Third Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Sarah, aged 11 years, and her son, William L., Jr. The funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon about 4 o'clock. The remains will be started to Frankfort tonight and interment will be made there on Monday morning.

Rubber Factory For Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., March 9.—The Mahoning Rubber company, which was recently incorporated under the laws of this state, with a capital of $400,000, organized by the election of the following officers: President, H. K. Wick; vice president, A. E. Adams; secretary and treasurer, John Tod; manager, James McClurg. Steps will be taken to secure a site and erect a factory. The company will manufacture mechanical rubber goods.

Abolished Cuban Export Tobacco Duty.

Washington, March 9.—The president issued an executive order abolishing the Cuban export duty on tobacco from April 1 next. This action was taken on the earnest recommendation of the Cuban economic commission, which recently visited Washington, endorsed by General Wood.

Frick Gives 5,000 to Mercy Hospital.

Pittsburg, March 9.—H. C. Frick donated $5,000 to the Mercy hospital for a children's ward. Other contributions are shortly expected and another addition to the hospital will likely be built.

FOUR SETS OF PAPERS.

Much Trouble Experienced in Getting at Young Farmer's Cash.

A great deal of trouble has been experienced in locating the guardian of Wyllie Farmer. A suit was brought in the court of Justice McCarron some time ago to recover a board bill. Money coming to Farmer as interest from the Pottery National bank was attached. It was said at that time that the building and loan association was custodian of the money. This was not the case, and Mrs. E. O. Walters was served with a garnishee. When it was learned that she also was the wrong party, the authorities almost despaired of getting the money.

About this time it was learned that Mrs. L. H. Hawkins was the guardian of Farmer and the fourth set of papers were served.

ADVERTISING AND HOME TRADE.

It pays to advertise well and often. John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of Philadelphia, is credited with spending several million dollars each year in newspaper advertising. He neither uses nor has faith in any other kind. There are single firms in Pittsburg which spend from a quarter to a half million of dollars a year in advertising; it is needless to say that they do the largest business. East Liverpool merchants cannot be expected to do business on the scale of Philadelphia or even Pittsburg business men, but they have found that it pays to advertise liberally. The steady growth of advertisements in the columns of the News Review shows that the wide-awake merchants have discovered a sure method of placing their announcements so that they will be read by the people whom they are intended to reach. The News Review is essentially a paper for the home and it goes into the homes of the best citizens, for the reason that it contains nothing unfit for family reading and is invariably well filled with entertaining local and general news. It is thoroughly alive, and that is why enterprising merchants make use of its columns.

Now a word to readers. You read the attractive display advertisements in the Pittsburg papers and perhaps go to that city to do a considerable share of your shopping, when, nine times out of ten, you could buy the same goods on equally advantageous terms from the home merchants and save your time and railway fare. This is unfair treatment of men whom you know and respect, but it is the sort of treatment which merchants of many small cities have to put up with. Do those who do their trading away from home ever reflect that East Liverpool merchants are taxed for the support of East Liverpool schools and East Liverpool public improvements, while the Pittsburg merchants are not? If dull times come it is the home merchant and not the outsider who is asked to give credit and tide the customer over his embarrassment.

The home merchants are among the best, most enterprising and public spirited of our citizens. They are constantly called upon for donations for church and charitable purposes, and their purses are always open. Yet perhaps the very same persons who solicit their aid in promoting this or that home institution, when they have a few dollars to spend in a store, go elsewhere to spend it. What have the merchants of our city done to deserve this sort of slight? It is far more satisfactory to deal with men whom you know and in whom you have confidence than with strangers. There are no better stores in any city of its size anywhere than right here in East Liverpool, and the customer who cannot find what he wants here must indeed be overfastidious. The way to make your town grow and prosper is to spend your money here, as far as possible. That is what local business men are doing, and the example they set is one which all should follow.

REVOLTING BARBARITY.

It is a revolting story of cruelty and injustice that comes from South Carolina. If half of it be true, prison gates should be yawning for the officials which have permitted such a state of affairs to exist. The grand jury of Anderson county in that state has made its report, characterizing the course of employers of colored labor as most iniquitous. Five plantation owners had stockades built for the negroes, whom they had under contract, and this is the description given of the way the men are treated: "The contract laborers work under armed guard, are kept locked up at night and all Sunday, and are whipped freely. Several guards are present for whipping these laborers cruelly, one man having received 100 lashes with a rawhide. They found some of the contracts with the place for time of service and rate of pay left blank, although signed by the negroes. This left them indefinitely in the power of the landlord without pay."

Men against whom no charges rest are alleged to have been kidnaped and placed in convict camps. One method of getting negroes is said to have been to get them out of jail on bond and work them in stockades until the time came for their trial. In this way men jailed for playing craps have been kept half a year in one stockade. The conditions prevailing are described as virtual slavery. They are a disgrace to twentieth century civilization. The convict lease system in the south has long been the source of iniquity and barbarity almost unparalleled in a civilized land, and it is to be hoped that the aroused sentiment of the enlightened people will now proceed to wipe it out, together with its shocking abuses.

The Prohibitionists have entered the lists with candidates for local offices. We admire the courage with which they stand by their principles, but we don't mind assuring them confidentially that when the Republican primaries have been held a ticket is as good as elected. All other entries will be found in the "also ran" class when results are counted up on election day.

Admiral Dewey received a warrant yesterday for $9,570 for the work which he performed at Manila bay, in a few hours, one May morning in 1898. And there's not a man in America mean enough to say that George got more than he deserved.

The legislature at Honolulu, U. S. A., falls naturally into American ways. Already its sergeant-at-arms is apparently its busiest official.

Salineville complains of a scarcity of candidates and no choice at the primaries which are being held to-

OBITUARY.

Earl Locke.

Word was received in the city this morning of the death of Earl Locke at his home in New Castle. Mr. Locke was employed by the Erie Roofing company and for several weeks worked in this city placing a rock asbestos roof on the Laughlin No. 2 pottery and is well known here. H. A. Wilbur left this morning for New Castle to attend the funeral, which will take place tomorrow.

Martha Craven.

Martha Craven died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Craven, Minerva street, this morning, aged 2 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made at River-view cemetery.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

Elizabeth J. Hall entertained last evening at her home on Kossuth street. The party spent a pleasant evening. Light refreshments were served.

A number of friends of Bertram Harker were pleasantly entertained by him last evening at his home on Walnut street. The evening was enjoyably spent.

Miss Pearl Shives pleasantly entertained a large party of her young friends last evening at her home on Fifth street. Music and games made up the night's enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albright and Orville Sebring returned to their home in Sebring yesterday afternoon, after attending the reception of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Taylor.

Surprised by the Knights.

The Ladies of the Golden Eagle, at their meeting last night, initiated six new members, and received six applications. A pie social was served to the new members and the ladies were then surprised by the knights, who served an oyster supper. A good time was had by all present.

Entertained by Mrs. Gipner.

Mrs. J. W. Gipner yesterday afternoon entertained the members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home on Robinson street. The attendance was large, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed.

FAULT OF FILIPINOS

The Reason Their Representatives Did Not Get Recognition at Paris

DAVIS' REPLY TO A CONCILO

Told Him to Send His Arguments in Writing, But the Island Leader Failed to Do So—Filipinos Were Heard.

New York, March 9.—Correspondence between L. K. Fuller, secretary of the Philippine Information society (Boston), and Whitelaw Reid, one of the American members of the commission, throws light upon the failure of the Philippine representative to be heard before the treaty commissioners in Paris. We give it in part. Mr. Fuller's letter said in part:

"On page 171 of 'Problems of Expansion' I find 'every time Mr. Agoncillo approached any member of the commission on the subject he was courteously invited to send the commissioners a written request for a hearing, which would, at any rate, receive immediate consideration. No such request ever came, and any Filipino who wrote for a hearing in Paris was heard.'

Reputed Statement of Lopez.

"The statement of Mr. Sixto Lopez, secretary of the Philippine commission, as to its efforts to obtain a hearing from the treaty commission is to the effect that Senator Agoncillo called repeatedly upon Senator Davis, to whom he had received a letter of introduction, asking the senator to secure him a hearing before the treaty commissioners. Mr. Lopez says the senator made no suggestion that a written request be made to the commission, but stated that he himself would present Mr. Agoncillo's request for a hearing.

"May I now inquire whether Senator Davis did ever present the request of Senator Agoncillo and whether, to your knowledge, any member of the commission advised either him or Mr. Lopez to present such a written request?

"Mr. Lopez further states that the Philippine representatives called upon and left cards for each American member of the commission, which courtesy he says was in no way noticed. Can you inform me, in your own case, whether this card was received, and, if so, if the advances of Senator Agoncillo were in any way reciprocated?"

Mr. Reid's letter said in part:

"1. Senator Davis, on at least two occasions, reported to the peace commissioners the request Mr. Agoncillo had made orally to him for a hearing. Each time Senator Davis was authorized by the commissioners to request Mr. Agoncillo to present the application in writing and to assure him that it would have early attention. Senator Davis reported to the commission each time that he had communicated to Mr. Agoncillo its answer. Perhaps I ought to add that on more than one occasion I brought the subject up in the commission and inquired of Senator Davis whether any such written application had yet come from Mr. Agoncillo. I was told that none had come, and that instead Mr. Agoncillo was reported to be frequenting the headquarters of the Spanish commissioners and the Spanish embassy.

Reid Returned Agoncillo's Courtesy.

"2. In my own case, Mr. Agoncillo's card was received, and my card was duly left upon him within 24 hours.

MOB WAS AFTER AN AMERICAN.

Several Americans Stoned—Exciting Affair at San Juan, Porto Rico.

San Juan de Porto Rico, March 9.—A serious riot occurred here. Five artillery men and a corporal of artillery, named Hiscock, left their guard post without orders and charged across the plaza into a street in which a mob of people had assembled. The soldiers fired a volley into the air, dispersed the mob and rescued School Superintendent Armstrong, who was besieged by the mob in a house situated about a block from the city center.

For hours previous to the rescue of Superintendent Armstrong the city had been overrun by a riotous crowd of probably 1,500 persons, who shouted "Down with the Americans" and other similar cries.

The excitement originated in a trivial school incident involving Superintendent Armstrong and illustrating the excitable natures of the Porto Ricans. The superintendent reprimanded a girl, 10 years of age, for disobedience, and forcibly but harmlessly marched her from the rear to the front of the school room. Her dress caught in a desk and was torn, and the girl reported to her mother that she had been kicked and abused. This excited the girl's mother and sensational stories were circulated. Several Americans were stoned.

Governor Allen deplored the unfortunate occurrence, especially the action of the artillerymen. Corporal Hiscock was placed under arrest. It is probable that he will be tried by court martial.

THREE DEMOCRATS IN REVOLT.

Don't Like Election Law, Which Passed to Third Reading, in Maryland.

Annapolis, Md., March 9.—The house passed to its third reading the election bill prepared by the Democrats. It disqualifies a large number of voters.

Delegate Buckey, of Frederick county, a Democrat, threw something of a bombshell into the Democratic ranks by offering an amendment, which, if adopted, would have nullified the chief purpose of the bill which is to deny to illiterates any assistance from the election officers in preparing their ballots. Mr. Buckey's amendment was as follows: "Providing, however, that nothing in the foregoing law shall prevent any bona fide citizen of the state of Maryland having the qualifications prescribed by the constitution from receiving such assistance from the ballot clerks as will enable him to give free, independent and manly expression of his political convictions at the ballot box."

Mr. Buckey made a speech in support of his amendment, declaring that the bill under consideration is unconstitutional and revolutionary, and announcing his intention to vote against the measure when it comes up for final passage. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 50 to 26, three Democrats, Messrs. Pattison, of Dorchester; Roberts, of Wicomico, and Garner, of Saint Marys, voting with Mr. Buckey and the Republicans in favor of it.

HARRISON'S FRIENDS ANXIOUS.

The Ex-President Has Grip and Inter-costal Neuralgia.

Indianapolis, March 9.—Ex-President Benjamin Harrison is a very sick man and his closest friends are alarmed. His condition is more serious than is generally believed. However, Dr. Henry Jameson, the family physician, who has sole charge of the case, said last night there was no immediate danger. In fact, he was not at all alarmed, he said, as to the outcome. Asked if the age of General Harrison would not weigh very much against his recovery, the doctor said such would naturally be the case, to a certain extent; but he declined to discuss the matter further than to say that he was not at all alarmed over the condition of his patient.

General Harrison is troubled with a complication of grip and intercostal neuralgia, and there is some fear that this will develop into pneumonia. The disease in itself is not necessarily of an alarming character, but when the age of General Harrison is taken into consideration with the diminution of his recuperative powers, his present illness is being viewed with much anxiety.

Americans Established Chinese Court.

Washington, March 9.—So far as is known the United States was the first of the powers at Peking to erect a regular Chinese court of justice in the Chinese capital in place of the arbitrary military courts which have been acting since the entrance of the allies into the city. No death sentence shall be executed without the approval of the commander of the United States forces.

A CONFERENCE HELD.

Kitchener And Botha Meet And Discuss Terms of Ending the War.

Pretoria, March 9.—Lord Kitchener, commander of the British forces in South Africa, met General Botha, the Boer leader, and other influential Boers, at Middelburg, on Feb. 27. They discussed terms for ending the war.

General Botha was unaccompanied by any one, and General Kitchener had only his secretary with him. The two generals had a long conference, the result of which has not yet been disclosed.

Another dispatch from Pretoria, dated Wednesday, March 6, says the meeting between General Kitchener and General Botha has awakened deep interest and that there are favorable expectations as to the probable outcome. According to The Sun the surrender of General Botha would have been an accomplished fact before now had General Kitchener been in a position to conclude the terms of surrender.

London, March 9.—A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques states that General Botha was granted a seven days' armistice to enable him to confer with the other generals.

GEN. CELLIERS WAS KILLED.

Some Reports From General Kitchener on Certain Operations in South Africa.

London, March 9.—Lord Kitchener, reporting under date of March 7, says:

"The Boers failed in their determined attack on Litchenburg. Our losses, besides the two officers previously reported, were 14 men killed and 20 wounded. The Boer general, Celliers, was killed.

"De Wet's position is variously reported, as his men are searching through the Orange colony. Our troops, marching north, reached Petrusburg today.

"French reports further captures of a 14-pounder Creuzot, with carriage and limber complete, and one Hotchkiss gun, making a total of seven guns. The total number of Boers known to have been placed hors de combat since the eastern operations began is 979."

Adding to his last report Lord Kitchener reported that 169 rifles, 24,970 rounds of ammunition, 185 horses, 1,240 trek oxen, 3,920 cattle, 13,580 sheep, 100 wagons and carts and large quantities of forage have been captured without casualties in Cape Colony.

He further reported:

"Parson found a small commando north of Aberdeen and attacked them. Kritzinger's commando yesterday entered Pearston, but Gorringer turned them out and Delisle headed them off on the road to Somerset East. French has been chasing Botha and Myers."

THE SENATE HELD OVER.

Would Have Adjourned Yesterday, but Awaited Mitchell's Coming.

Washington, March 9.—Final adjournment of the extraordinary session of the senate would have been taken Friday had the new senator from Oregon, Mr. Mitchell, been present to take the oath of office. He could not reach Washington until today, however, and adjournment was postponed until that time.

Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of senators to call upon the president and inform him that the senate was ready to adjourn without day. Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, objected to consideration Friday, saying that Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, would be here today, and it was due to him that the senate remain in session until his arrival.

FAULT OF FILIPINOS

The Reason Their Representatives Did Not Get Recognition at Paris

DAVIS' REPLY TO A GONCILLO

Told Him to Send His Arguments in Writing, But the Island Leader Failed to Do So—Filipinos Were Heard.

New York, March 9.—Correspondence between L. K. Fuller, secretary of the Philippine Information society (Boston), and Whitelaw Reid, one of the American members of the commission, throws light upon the failure of the Philippine representative to be heard before the treaty commissioners in Paris. We give it in part. Mr. Fuller's letter said in part: "On page 171 of 'Problems of Expansion' I find 'every time Mr. Agoncillo approached any member of the commission on the subject he was courteously invited to send the commissioners a written request for a hearing, which would, at any rate, receive immediate consideration. No such request ever came, and any Filipino who wrote for a hearing in Paris was heard.'

Reputed Statement of Lopez.

"The statement of Mr. Sixto Lopez, secretary of the Philippine commission, as to its efforts to obtain a hearing from the treaty commission is to the effect that Senator Agoncillo called repeatedly upon Senator Davis, to whom he had received a letter of introduction, asking the senator to secure him a hearing before the treaty commissioners. Mr. Lopez says the senator made no suggestion that a written request be made to the commission, but stated that he himself would present Mr. Agoncillo's request for a hearing.

"May I now inquire whether Senator Davis did ever present the request of Senator Agoncillo and whether, to your knowledge, any member of the commission advised either him or Mr. Lopez to present such a written request?

"Mr. Lopez further states that the Philippine representatives called upon and left cards for each American member of the commission, which courtesy he says was in no way noticed. Can you inform me, in your own case, whether this card was received, and, if so, if the advances of Senator Agoncillo were in any way reciprocated?"

Mr. Reid's letter said in part:

"1. Senator Davis, on at least two occasions, reported to the peace commissioners the request Mr. Agoncillo had made orally to him for a hearing. Each time Senator Davis was authorized by the commissioners to request Mr. Agoncillo to present the application in writing and to assure him that it would have early attention. Senator Davis reported to the commission each time that he had communicated to Mr. Agoncillo its answer. Perhaps I ought to add that on more than one occasion I brought the subject up in the commission and inquired of Senator Davis whether any such written application had yet come from Mr. Agoncillo. I was told that none had come, and that instead Mr. Agoncillo was reported to be frequenting the headquarters of the Spanish commissioners and the Spanish embassy.

Reid Returned Agoncillo's Courtesy.

"2. In my own case, Mr. Agoncillo's card was received, and my card was duly left upon him within 24 hours.

"3. As a matter of fact, 'any Filipino was so heard.' One was heard at considerable length, and more than once. But the hearing was, at his own request, kept secret. He was a man of standing in the community in Luzon."

SOUTH SIDE. POLLED THE TOWN

Anti-Incorporation People Claim That Their Side Will Be the Winning One.

BIG PROPERTY OWNERS' VIEWS

They Say the Town Must Incorporate to Improve And Keep Order—No Need for Higher Taxes—Arguments of the Opposition.

As incorporation is now the topic of all-absorbing interest in Chester the News Review gives the entire space allotted to Southside news to interviews with taxpayers and voters.

W. H. Riley and T. C. Cunningham polled the town yesterday and claim that the result indicates a decided majority for the opposition.

The enumerators say the result of their investigation was as follows: For incorporation, 20; against, 40; doubtful, 18. This does not indicate a complete canvass, as there are probably 150 voters in the town.

Among the prominent men interviewed were the following, who are the heaviest property holders on the Southside: C. A. Smith, Colonel John N. Taylor, Edwin M. Knowles, Joseph G. Lee, W. L. Smith, J. E. McDonald, William Banfield, John Shrader and E. D. Marshall. Their views are practically alike and the combined substance of their statements was about as follows:

"Incorporation would insure decency, sobriety and good order, which do not exist at this time because of no police protection. No firm, corporation or municipality can exist and grow without proper organization. A number of people in East Liverpool who own vacant lots in Chester would build handsome houses there and become citizens if the town was incorporated and could insure proper police protection. It is a deplorable but well known fact that two persons were murdered in Chester during the past two years, and the culprits walked away, while there was not even the formality of a trial. Drunkenness, debauchery, gambling and fights are now of almost daily occurrence and there are no officers to make an arrest or file a complaint. If Chester is to prosper and grow it can only be done by incorporation.

"With incorporation would come some much needed improvements, such as lights on the principal streets, sidewalks, etc. These matters would be controlled by the representatives of the people in council and would not be more extensive than the people themselves desire.

"Some are opposed to the measure because they think that increased taxes would swamp them and cause them to lose their homes. In this they are mistaken, as the act of incorporation itself would not increase taxes. The town council would control that. Further, all of the tax on property, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, now goes to the county, while a large part of this fund would be retained and spent in local improvements if the town were incorporated. The fines for misdemeanors, which would be paid into the town treasury, would more than pay the expenses of the police department.

"Capitalists who would be glad to invest many thousands of dollars in factories and homes here are awaiting incorporation. As a matter of business they cannot risk the investment of capital in a town without a government, and where both person and property are without protection.

"It is a singular fact that most of the opposition is among people who have never done anything to advance the interests of the town and who would have the least of the burden of taxation to bear.

"Chester must either be incorporated or remain without improvements or future developments."

Among the persons interviewed who were opposed to incorporation were the following, all of whom are taxpayers and voters:

O. O. Allison—I am in favor of incorporation when the proper time comes, but not now. I do not think it just to compel people to pay city tax on property that can never be improved, and exempt valuable and improved property which has been left outside by the promoters of the incorporation scheme. I do not think it would be to the interests of the common people, many of whom are striving to pay for their homes and would be swamped by the increased taxation that would necessarily follow. In the past we have been in great need of protection from lawlessness and crime, but at present we have a justice's court and constable located in the village, who, with the aid of good citizens, can and will preserve peace and order.

T. R. Cunningham—I am in favor of incorporation when the proper time comes. We are too young yet. Our population is only 760.

W. H. Riley, a heavy taxpayer—I am opposed to it because the plot includes some land almost valueless and leaves out adjacent land of great value. Rent payers will vote against the measure, which is sure to be defeated, because it will increase rent from one-third to one-half.

J. C. Cunningham—I believe the measure will be defeated, because there are too few property owners to pay the increased taxes which would necessarily follow without raising rents so high that the renters and home seekers would locate in the new town down the river or elsewhere. I believe if the town is incorporated it will have less population in a year than now.

Samuel Allison—I am in favor of incorporation if done in the right way, not showing so much partiality as in the present survey. For the present I am opposed to it. It is too young a town yet. When the right time comes I will favor it. You take a child when too young and keep it on its feet too much and it will be bow-legged.

AN EXCELLENT SHOWING.

Statement of the Potters' B. & S. Company Reveals Prosperity.

Elsewhere in our columns today will be found the twelfth annual statement of the Potters' Building & Savings company, which we take pleasure in calling our readers' special attention to. The assets of the Potters, it will be seen, foot up over $1,000,000.00 and the contingent fund now amounts to over $27,500, showing conclusively the strength and safety of this old institution. The fact that nearly $400,000 of loans was placed this last year also shows that the company's plan of loaning money is viewed by our people as both equitable and desirable. We are sure the 3,200 members of the Potters' may well feel proud of their company and look forward to the coming year with assurance of continued growth.

The board of directors, at their last meeting, declared the regular 3 per cent six months' dividend, payable on and after March 11.

AMONG THE POTTERIES.

A fire brick and pottery plant is to be built in Cecil county, Md., where kaolin beds exist.

The Burford Bros.' Pottery company today shipped a car load order of decorated ware to Iowa.

A purchase of 80 acres of land at Nascogdoches, Tex., has been made by a pottery man and development of the clay deposits there will begin. Kaolin clay has been found at Brenham, Tex.

THE TAX QUESTION

CAUSING CONSIDERABLE COMMENT.

Henry E. Bullock Figures Out How the Receipts Can Be Kept Up And the Levy Down.

With the approach of the Republican city primary election also comes, especially from the citizens of the resident portion of the city, considerable discussion as to what will be done by the incoming council in order to give them relief in the way of taxes from the enormous increase in the appraisalment of their property.

Workmen who are owners of property which has been increased from 70 to 90 per cent, are asking "Will our taxes be increased accordingly and what move can we make to prevent it?"

Henry E. Bullock, who is a candidate for council in the First ward, has, ever since the books were turned over to the city decennial appraisalment board, made a study of this question. He has previously shown the property owners that the resident property has been appraised greatly in excess, according to value of business property. Now that the state board of equalization has failed to give us any relief, it now behooves us to look somewhere else. Mr. Bullock today made the following statement:

"The only way in which I can find relief for the people is to keep down the next year tax levy, a portion of which will be made by the council. In 1900 the total appraisalment in this city was $2,588,460 and the entire levy was 31.8 mills. This brought in a total revenue of $82,313, which was divided up among the school, state, county, city and poor funds. The entire levy was divided as follows: State, 2.9 mills; county, 5.1 mills, school, 11.7 mills; poor .1 and the city 12 mills.

"The total valuation under the new appraisalment is $4,402,161, as can easily be seen an enormous increase. If we reduce the levy from 31.8 to 20 mills we will then pay in taxes $88,043, or an increase in the receipts for all the funds of $5,730. I think that this increase is surely enough and am in favor of bringing the levy down to about this levy if it can possibly be done.

"Last year the city's portion was $31,061, from the real estate alone, which is my basis for all this, and with the increased valuation we can reduce this levy to 7½ mills and then increase the receipts $1,954.

"Of course, we receive a substantial amount from the tax on personal property, but that does not enter into this increased appraisalment question. If we can get a reduction in the levy on each fund we ought to materially keep down the taxes until we get a chance to have the appraisalment equalized by the city equalizing board, the members of which are also appointed by the council, and whom, Prosecutor Brookes claims, have the power to do this. The city equalizers should be made to assert themselves on this before the council appoints them."

"THE FRENCH SHORE."

Where Misery, Squalor, Hunger and Cold Rule in Newfoundland.

Misery, squalor and wretchedness, accentuated by an almost ceaseless struggle with hunger and cold, are the portion of the inhabitants of the "North Shore," in Newfoundland. Their little hamlets are perched in the rifts in the almost unbroken hills, and the fierce storms sweep the surface almost to their doorsteps, while for seven months of the year their coast is blockaded with ice and they are cut off from all communication with the outside world.

The only industry is codfishing, and cod is the sole medium of exchange. The people rarely see money, and barter is the system of trading, a quintal of cod being the unit of value. The needs of the fisher folk are only supplied by the itinerant trader, his schooner being laden with provisions, clothing and fishing appliances. Thus have these people lived for generations. They are ignorant, for the means of education are nonexistent, the children being content with what satisfied their fathers. The common objects of everyday life are unknown to them. They have neither horses nor cattle. Only a few of the older folk who have ventured south have any knowledge of these things.

There are no roads and therefore no vehicles. Travel is by boat during the summer and over the ice floes during the rest of the year. The few letters for the clergy and others who can read are conveyed to the settlements by dog teams during the winter, and save for the fortnightly visit of the mailboat during the period of open navigation, a steamer is never seen by the residents.

With such marvels as electric telegraphs, telephones and electric light they are of course unfamiliar, and their standard of intelligence is best indicated by stating that it is not unusual to find a justice of the peace who cannot write his own name.—Chambers' Journal.

something In a Name.

The advantages that fall to the lot of a man whose surname occurs early in an alphabetical list are well known. As a candidate for office upon an Australian ballot, for example, a man named Abbott has a far better chance than the most eminent Zweigler. But the benefit that comes from the possession of a short name has not heretofore been generally recognized. Not long ago the promotion of one of the auditors of the treasury department at Washington created a vacancy to which, upon a formal recommendation to that effect, the candidate having the shortest name, being also a competent man, was appointed. His chief duty is to affix his signature to accounts, and as he needs to make but six letters in signing he can do twice as much in a day as a man whose name contains 12 letters.—Youth's Companion.

What Hurt Her.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1899.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $52 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get hold of a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, and decided to try your treatment. In nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.

DIVORCED ERE HE KNEW IT.

A Youngstown Man Makes a Startling Discovery.

Youngstown, O., March 9.—Nicholas Martin called on Prosecuting Attorney Gibson and said he had been divorced without knowing it, and that his wife during the past week had been married again. Martin said his wife deserted him in Pittsburg several months ago and came here. The court records show that Mrs. Martin filed a petition in court here for divorce last October, and that personal service was secured on Martin.

A decree was granted Mrs. Martin, on the ground of desertion, and on March 4 she was married here to Joseph Apone. Judge Rogers, who granted the divorce, said that if the facts were as stated by Martin, he would enter a decree annulling the divorce.

PLAN TO HAVE A GOOD TEAM

The Baseball Club Proposition
Received With Favor In the City.

C. Y. TRAVIS IS BOOMING IT

With Other Enthusiasts He Is Pushing the Movement—No Lack of Material for the Formation of a First-Rate Team Right Away.

An effort will be made within the next few weeks to organize an association which will take up the work of forming a base ball club for East Liverpool.

The idea suggested is that the owners of West End park be interested in the matter to such an extent that they will fence the grounds. With that object in view Attorney G. Y. Travis, who is one of the most enthusiastic base ball promoters of the city, has started a movement with reference to the matter and expects to hear something within a few days.

Should this plan fail there will still be left plenty of territory to work upon. Both Columbian park and the Southside grounds are available, and if the street car service is satisfactory, easy of access.

There are a number of people in this city who are more than willing to interest themselves to the extent of equipping a team, and if the agitation reaches this point there is little doubt that the club will be a certainty.

A prominent business man who has always been a base ball enthusiast had this to say last evening: "There is no reason why a first-class team cannot be put on the field from East Liverpool in the spring. There is material in plenty and to spare. We demonstrated the fact in the days of the Crockery City and Eclipse teams that we could play the game when we went at it in earnest, and we can do it again. East Liverpool has just as good material as it had in those days. The only thing lacking is development, and there is nothing more effective than a first-class club to bring this about. The Pottery league of last year was a great help to the game in this city, as it developed players that would never have been heard of had it not been for the organization."

"Now what we want first is a good ground, enclosed, of course, and then those who may be induced to take an interest will furnish the necessary material. One great drawback in the past has been jealousy among the players. A certain amount of this is always to be expected, but if we start right this can be done away with to a great extent. I have 20 men in mind at the present moment that would be fit in every respect to take positions on a winning team. We need a club and should lose no time in starting the ball."

A number of other fans have expressed themselves in a like manner, and it is thought, with a proper amount of agitation, the idea can be carried out.

WHEN TWO MAKE ONE.

The Twins, the Confident Mother and the Astute Conductor.

"Fares," demanded the Jefferson avenue car conductor.

The tall, thin woman handed out 8 cents for herself and two youngsters.

"Three cents more, please," reminded the conductor.

"They are twins," she explained, "and only equal to one child."

The conductor scratched his head and tried to remember his instructions. Evidently he recollected nothing governing twins; but, being something of a philosopher, he pondered and said: "Twins are out of the ordinary, therefore singular. Perhaps you're right, and yet you spoke of the twins as 'they.' That's plural," and he gazed around triumphantly.

The fat man nodded. He was a bachelor and detested children.

"No," spoke up the comical man; "she is right. They have only one birthday between them. If they equaled two children, they would have two birthdays."

"I guess that's so," acquiesced the conductor. "Anyway I'll look it up."

"They take up two seats," growled the fat man.

The conductor paused and forgot to hand back 5 cents change. "Say," at last he broke out, "what's their names?"

"Wilbur and Marie," replied the mother pertly, failing to see the Delvet trap she was walking into.

"Hub! Boy and girl, eh? Well, I'll have to have another fare. You can figure on boy twins equaling one boy, but half a boy and half a girl don't add up."

She paid. "He's a diplomat," whispered the fat man in admiration. "He ought to be down in the legislature."—Rochester Post-Express.

The Truth Forced Home.

"Why?" he asked.

WHEN TWO MAKE ONE.

The Twins, the Confident Mother and the Astute Conductor.

"Fares," demanded the Jefferson avenue car conductor.

The tall, thin woman handed out 8 cents for herself and two youngsters.

"Three cents more, please," reminded the conductor.

"They are twins," she explained, "and only equal to one child."

The conductor scratched his head and tried to remember his instructions. Evidently he recollected nothing governing twins; but, being something of a philosopher, he pondered and said: "Twins are out of the ordinary, therefore singular. Perhaps you're right, and yet you spoke of the twins as 'they.' That's plural," and he gazed around triumphantly.

The fat man nodded. He was a bachelor and detested children.

"No," spoke up the comical man; "she is right. They have only one birthday between them. If they equaled two children, they would have two birthdays."

"I guess that's so," acquiesced the conductor. "Anyway I'll look it up."

"They take up two seats," growled the fat man.

The conductor paused and forgot to hand back 5 cents change. "Say," at last he broke out, "what's their names?"

"Wilbur and Marie," replied the mother pertly, falling to see the Delvet trap she was walking into.

"Hub! Boy and girl, eh? Well, I'll have to have another fare. You can figure on boy twins equaling one boy, but half a boy and half a girl don't add up."

She paid.

"He's a diplomat," whispered the fat

man in admiration. "He ought to be down in the legislature."—Rochester Post-Express.

New Insomnia Cure.

Brown—Say, I've been trying the finest cure for insomnia that I ever heard of. It is for one to count each breath that he exhales while lying in bed.

Smith—Ah! Then you go to sleep.

Brown—No, but after a little while a fellow gets rather interested in the work, and the night passes away so quickly that he doesn't mind lying still so long.—Brooklyn Life.

No Venture About It.

"Is this your first venture in matrimony?" the preacher asked while the bridegroom was out in the vestibule giving certain instructions to the best man, who was also his head clerk.

"My dear Mr. Goodleigh," she replied, almost blushing, "this isn't a venture at all. He has given me deeds to more than $60,000 worth of property already."—Chicago Times-Herald.

The Truth Forced Home.

"I'm afraid," she sighed, "that I'm getting old."

"Why?" he asked.

"When I go to the grocery now, the clerks don't nearly break their necks trying to beat one another in getting my orders."—Chicago Times-Herald.

A GRAVE SITUATION

Crisis In Chinese Affairs May Lead to Trouble With Russia.

CZAR'S ATTITUDE SUSPECTED

The Bear Thought to Be Preparing to Establish Himself Permanently in Manchuria—An Anglo-American Conference Reported.

London, March 9.—A crisis has arisen in far eastern affairs which, in the opinion of the British government, is graver almost than the troubles which originally turned the eyes of the world toward the Orient. In this crisis secret negotiations are going on between the United States and Great Britain with a view to thwarting what both governments appear to consider a determined attempt on the part of Russia to plant herself permanently in one of the richest tracts of the Chinese empire.

Choate and Lansdowne Conferred.

The conference held Wednesday between United States Ambassador Choate and Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secretary, had nothing to do with the Nicaraguan canal affair. To quote from a British official, "The Nicaraguan controversy is a minor matter compared with the present situation." What Mr. Choate did was to receive from Lord Lansdowne an important message declaring that Great Britain was not satisfied with Russia's declaration regarding Manchuria, as delivered to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador at St. Petersburg, by Count Lamsdorf, and asking the United States if they were prepared to take joint action of such a decisive nature that Russia would have no alternative but to recede from her position.

Almost simultaneously, the Associated Press understands, the United States government instructed the various ambassadors to take similar steps.

The answer of Secretary Hay has apparently not yet been received in London, although the fact that almost concurrent instructions were issued from Washington is taken here to be a sufficient guarantee that Russia's action in Manchuria will not be tolerated by the United States.

Japan is relied upon to take a line in harmony with the United States and Great Britain.

Germany's Attitude Considered Doubtful.

Germany, in spite of the Anglo-German compact, is regarded as rather doubtful, owing to Emperor William's friendship for the czar. France, of course, will side with her ally.

The significance of the present phase can only be appreciated by those cognizant of the lethargic attitude of the British government hitherto regarding Russian action in China. Within the last few days, all this has changed. What a week or two ago was pronounced only in line with Russia's usual policy is now termed "a grave and serious state of affairs."

Lord Lansdowne is using every effort to bring the powers into line, in order to present to Russia such a menacing front that, without any ambiguity regarding temporary or other occupation, she may give up all designs upon Manchuria.

What prompts the British foreign office to take such an alarmist view of circumstances, usually looked upon as fatalistic sequences, is the apprehension that Russia, having held her own in spite of the protest of the ministers of the powers to the Chinese government, and having put herself on record in the reply to Sir Charles Scott as determined on at least a temporary occupation of Manchuria, will refuse to back down.

That she must do so Lord Lansdowne considers vital both for the future of China and for the continued existence of the concert of powers.

Count Lamsdorf's reply to Sir Charles Scott is considered quite unsatisfactory. "If such excuses are accepted by the powers," said a British official to a representative of the Associated Press, "there will be nothing to prevent the immediate partition of China, for with almost exactly the same verbiage, any European power could justify the occupation of other provinces."

Alleged to Be Guarded With Secrecy.

Upon the degree of support afforded the movement by Germany and Japan depends the result of what is understood to be the aim of a synchronous action of Washington and London. The whole affair is guarded with the greatest secrecy, and it was not apparently without motive that a special dispatch was allowed to go from London erroneously announcing that the negotiations going on between Mr. Choate and Lord Lansdowne related to the Nicaraguan affair.

A feeling pervades inner circles here that if Count Lamsdorf's explanation is accepted by the powers, Russia will be accorded a free hand to take all she pleases, and the door will be opened to any other power aggressive enough to step in and annex Chinese provinces under the pretext of temporary occupation.

Berlin, March 9.—The German press believes that Russia's assurances regarding Manchuria to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador in St. Petersburg, are insincere and intended to blind the world.

The National Zeitung frankly asserts that this is their object.

DEATHS IN PHILIPPINES.

List of Killed Sent by General MacArthur—Also Names of a Number of Wounded.

Washington, March 9.—General MacArthur's latest casualty list is as follows:

Killed—Sept. 20, San Miguel de Mayumo, Luzon, Co. A, 35th I., Charles A. Baker; March 3, near Silang, Luzon, Co. D, 46th I., Sergeant Walter A. Gilmore.

Wounded—Jan. 4, Mt. Lsarob, Luzon, Co. E, 47th I., Corporal Thomas L. Casey, wounded in arm, serious; Feb. 24, San Vicente, Luzon, Troop F, 3d C., Charles W. Larzelare, wounded in thigh, moderate.

MRS. W. L. MEWAN DEAD.

Wife of the Pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 9.—Mrs. Elizabeth Watson McEwan died at her home, No. 836 South Negley avenue. Mrs. McEwan was the wife of the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian church. Her death was due to heart disease, from which she had suffered for several years. It was not until some five months ago, however, that she was confined to the house by her ailment. Friday was the birthday of her youngest child, William L., Jr. Mrs. McEwan was born in Frankfort, Ky., 41 years ago and was married to the Rev. McEwan 15 years ago. Mr. McEwan and his wife came here in 1894, and have remained ever since.

The deceased was a devoted Christian and worker in the church, and had greatly endeared herself to the congregation of the Third Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Sarah, aged 11 years, and her son, William L., Jr. The funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon about 4 o'clock. The remains will be started to Frankfort tonight and interment will be made there on Monday morning.

Rubber Factory For Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., March 9.—The Mahoning Rubber company, which was recently incorporated under the laws of this state, with a capital of $400,000, organized by the election of the following officers: President, H. K. Wick; vice president, A. E. Adams; secretary and treasurer, John Tod; manager, James McClurg. Steps will be taken to secure a site and erect a factory. The company will manufacture mechanical rubber goods.

Abolished Cuban Export Tobacco Duty.

Washington, March 9.—The president issued an executive order abolishing the Cuban export duty on tobacco from April 1 next. This action was taken on the earnest recommendation of the Cuban economic commission, which recently visited Washington, endorsed by General Wood.

Frick Gives 5,000 to Mercy Hospital.

Pittsburg, March 9.—H. C. Frick donated $5,000 to the Mercy hospital for a children's ward. Other contributions are shortly expected and another addition to the hospital will likely be built.

FOUR SETS OF PAPERS.

Much Trouble Experienced in Getting at Young Farmer's Cash.

A great deal of trouble has been experienced in locating the guardian of Willie Farmer. A suit was brought in the court of Justice McCarroll some time ago to recover a bond bill. Money coming to Farmer as interest from the Federal National bank was attached. It was said at that time that the building and loan association was custodian of the money. This was not the case, and Mrs. E. O. Walters was served with a garnishee. When it was learned that she also was the wrong party, the authorities almost despaired of getting the money.

About this time it was learned that Mrs. L. H. Hawkins was the guardian of Farmer and the fourth set of papers were served.

FAULT OF FILIPINOS

The Reason Their Representatives Did Not Get Recognition at Paris

DAVIS' REPLY TO A AGONCILLO

Told Him to Send His Arguments in Writing, But the Island Leader Failed to Do So—Filipinos Were Heard.

New York, March 9.—Correspondence between L. K. Fuller, secretary of the Philippine Information society (Boston), and Whitelaw Reid, one of the American members of the commission, throws light upon the failure of the Philippine representative to be heard before the treaty commissioners in Paris. We give it in part. Mr. Fuller's letter said in part: "On page 171 of 'Problems of Expansion' I find 'every time Mr. Agoncillo approached any member of the commission on the subject he was courteously invited to send the commissioners a written request for a hearing, which would, at any rate, receive immediate consideration. No such request ever came, and any Filipino who wrote for a hearing in Paris was heard.'

Reputed Statement of Lopez. "The statement of Mr. Sixto Lopez, secretary of the Philippine commission, as to its efforts to obtain a hearing from the treaty commission is to the effect that Senor Agoncillo called repeatedly upon Senator Davis, to whom he had received a letter of introduction, asking the senator to secure him a hearing before the treaty commissioners. Mr. Lopez says the senator made no suggestion that a written request be made to the commission, but stated that he himself would present Mr. Agoncillo's request for a hearing.

"May I now inquire whether Senator Davis did ever present the request of Senor Agoncillo and whether, to your knowledge, any member of the commission advised either him or Mr. Lopez to present such a written request?" "Mr. Lopez further states that the Philippine representatives called upon and left cards for each American member of the commission, which courtesy he says was in no way noticed. Can you inform me, in your own case, whether this card was received, and, if so, if the advances of Senor Agoncillo were in any way reciprocated?"

Mr. Reid's letter said in part: "1. Senator Davis, on at least two occasions, reported to the peace commissioners the request Mr. Agoncillo had made orally to him for a hearing. Each time Senator Davis was authorized by the commissioners to request Mr. Agoncillo to present the application in writing and to assure him that it would have early attention. Senator Davis reported to the commission each time that he had communicated to Mr. Agoncillo its answer. Perhaps I ought to add that on more than one occasion I brought the subject up in the commission and inquired of Senator Davis whether any such written application had yet come from Mr. Agoncillo. I was told that none had come, and that instead Mr. Agoncillo was reported to be frequenting the headquarters of the Spanish commissioners and the Spanish embassy.

Reid Returned Agoncillo's Courtesy. "2. In my own case, Mr. Agoncillo's card was received, and my card was duly left upon him within 24 hours. "3. As a matter of fact, 'any Filipino was so heard.' One was heard at considerable length, and more than once. But the hearing was, at his own request, kept secret. He was a man of standing in the community in Luzon."

MOB WAS AFTER AN AMERICAN.

Several Americans Stoned—Exciting Affair at San Juan, Porto Rico. San Juan de Porto Rico, March 9.—A serious riot occurred here. Five artillery men and a corporal of artillery, named Hiscock, left their guard post without orders and charged across the plaza into a street in which a mob of people had assembled. The soldiers fired a volley into the air, dispersed the mob and rescued School Superintendent Armstrong, who was besieged by the mob in a house situated about a block from the city center.

For hours previous to the rescue of Superintendent Armstrong the city had been overrun by a riotous crowd of probably 1,500 persons, who shouted "Down with the Americans" and other similar cries.

The excitement originated in a trivial school incident involving Superintendent Armstrong and illustrating the excitable natures of the Porto Ricans. The superintendent reprimanded a girl, 10 years of age, for disobedience, and forcibly but harmlessly marched her from the rear to the front of the school room. Her dress caught in a desk and was torn, and the girl reported to her mother that she had been kicked and abused. This excited the girl's mother and sensational stories were circulated. Several Americans were stoned.

Governor Allen deplored the unfortunate occurrence, especially the action of the artillerymen. Corporal Hiscock was placed under arrest. It is probable that he will be tried by court martial.

THREE DEMOCRATS IN REVOLT.

Don't Like Election Law, Which Passed to Third Reading, in Maryland.

Annapolis, Md., March 9.—The house passed to its third reading the election bill prepared by the Democrats. It disqualifies a large number of voters.

Delegate Buckey, of Frederick county, a Democrat, threw something of a bombshell into the Democratic ranks by offering an amendment, which, if adopted, would have nullified the chief purpose of the bill which is to deny to illiterates any assistance from the election officers in preparing their ballots. Mr. Buckey's amendment was as follows: "Providing, however, that nothing in the foregoing law shall prevent any bona fide citizen of the state of Maryland having the qualifications prescribed by the constitution from receiving such assistance from the ballot clerks as will enable him to give free, independent and manly expression of his political convictions at the ballot box."

Mr. Buckey made a speech in support of his amendment, declaring that the bill under consideration is unconstitutional and revolutionary, and announcing his intention to vote against the measure when it comes up for final passage. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 50 to 26, three Democrats, Messrs. Pattison, of Dorchester; Roberts, of Wicomico, and Garner, of Saint Marys, voting with Mr. Buckey and the Republicans in favor of it.

HARRISON'S FRIENDS ANXIOUS.

The Ex-President Has Grip and Inter-costal Neuralgia.

Indianapolis, March 9.—Ex-President Benjamin Harrison is a very sick man and his closest friends are alarmed. His condition is more serious than is generally believed. However, Dr. Henry Jameson, the family physician, who has sole charge of the case, said last night there was no immediate danger. In fact, he was not at all alarmed, he said, as to the outcome. Asked if the age of General Harrison would not weigh very much against his recovery, the doctor said such would naturally be the case, to a certain extent; but he declined to discuss the matter further than to say that he was not at all alarmed over the condition of his patient.

General Harrison is troubled with a complication of grip and intercostal neuralgia, and there is some fear that this will develop into pneumonia. The disease in itself is not necessarily of an alarming character, but when the age of General Harrison is taken into consideration with the diminution of his recuperative powers, his present illness is being viewed with much anxiety.

Americans Established Chinese Court.

Washington, March 9.—So far as is known the United States was the first of the powers at Peking to erect a regular Chinese court of justice in the Chinese capital in place of the arbitrary military courts which have been acting since the entrance of the allies into the city. No death sentence shall be executed without the approval of the commander of the United States forces.

A CONFERENCE HELD.

Kitchener And Botha Meet And Discuss Terms of Ending the War.

Pretoria, March 9.—Lord Kitchener, commander of the British forces in South Africa, met General Botha, the Boer leader, and other influential Boers, at Middleburg, on Feb. 27. They discussed terms for ending the war.

General Botha was unaccompanied by any one, and General Kitchener had only his secretary with him. The two generals had a long conference, the result of which has not yet been disclosed.

Another dispatch from Pretoria, dated Wednesday, March 6, says the meeting between General Kitchener and General Botha has awakened deep interest and that there are favorable expectations as to the probable outcome. According to The Sun the surrender of General Botha would have been an accomplished fact before now had General Kitchener been in a position to conclude the terms of surrender.

London, March 9.—A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques states that General Botha was granted a seven days' armistice to enable him to confer with the other generals.

GEN. CELLIERS WAS KILLED.

Some Reports From General Kitchener on Certain Operations in South Africa.

London, March 9.—Lord Kitchener, reporting under date of March 7, says:

"The Boers failed in their determined attack on Litchenburg. Our losses, besides the two officers previously reported, were 14 men killed and 20 wounded. The Boer general, Celliers, was killed.

"De Wet's position is variously reported, as his men are searching through the Orange colony. Our troops, marching north, reached Petrusburg today.

"French reports further captures of a 14-pounder Creuzot, with carriage and limber complete, and one Hotchkiss gun, making a total of seven guns. The total number of Boers known to have been placed hors de combat since the eastern operations began is 979."

Adding to his last report Lord Kitchener reported that 169 rifles, 24,970 rounds of ammunition, 185 horses, 1,240 trek oxen, 3,920 cattle, 13,580 sheep, 100 wagons and carts and large quantities of forage have been captured without casualties in Cape Colony.

He further reported: "Parson found a small commando north of Aberdeen and attacked them. Kritzinger's commando yesterday entered Pearson, but Gorringer turned them out and Delisle headed them off on the road to Somerset East. French has been chasing Botha and Myers."

THE SENATE HELD OVER.

Would Have Adjourned Yesterday, but Awaited Mitchell's Coming.

Washington, March 9.—Final adjournment of the extraordinary session of the senate would have been taken Friday had the new senator from Oregon, Mr. Mitchell, been present to take the oath of office. He could not reach Washington until today, however, and adjournment was postponed until that time.

Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of senators to call upon the president and inform him that the senate was ready to adjourn without day. Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, objected to consideration Friday, saying that Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, would be here today, and it was due to him that the senate remain in session until his arrival.

DIVORCED ERE HE KNEW IT.

A Youngstown Man Makes a Startling Discovery.

Youngstown, O., March 9.—Nicholas Martin called on Prosecuting Attorney Gibson and said he had been divorced without knowing it, and that his wife during the past week had been married again. Martin said his wife deserted him in Pittsburg several months ago and came here. The court records show that Mrs. Martin filed a petition in court here for divorce last October, and that personal service was secured on Martin.

A decree was granted Mrs. Martin, on the ground of desertion, and on March 4 she was married here to Joseph Apone. Judge Rogers, who granted the divorce, said that if the facts were as stated by Martin, he would enter a decree annulling the divorce.

PLAN TO HAVE A GOOD TEAM

The Baseball Club Proposition
Received With Favor In
the City.

C. Y. TRAVIS IS BOOMING IT

With Other Enthusiasts He is Pushing the Movement—No Lack of Material for the Formation of a First-Rate Team Right Away.

An effort will be made within the next few weeks to organize an association which will take up the work of forming a base ball club for East Liverpool.

The idea suggested is that the owners of West End park be interested in the matter to such an extent that they will fence the grounds. With that object in view Attorney G. Y. Travis, who is one of the most enthusiastic base ball promoters of the city, has started a movement with reference to the matter and expects to hear something within a few days.

Should this plan fail there will still be left plenty of territory to work upon. Both Columbian park and the Southside grounds are available, and if the street car service is satisfactory, easy of access.

There are a number of people in this city who are more than willing to interest themselves to the extent of equipping a team, and if the agitation reaches this point there is little doubt that the club will be a certainty.

A prominent business man who has always been a base ball enthusiast had this to say last evening: "There is no reason why a first-class team cannot be put on the field from East Liverpool in the spring. There is material in plenty and to spare. We demonstrated the fact in the days of the Crockery City and Eclipse teams that we could play the game when we went at it in earnest, and we can do it again. East Liverpool has just as good material as it had in those days. The only thing lacking is development, and there is nothing more effective than a first-class club to bring this about. The Pottery league of last year was a great help to the game in this city, as it developed players that would never have been heard of had it not been for the organization."

"Now what we want first is a good ground, enclosed, of course, and then those who may be induced to take an interest will furnish the necessary material. One great drawback in the past has been jealousy among the players. A certain amount of this is always to be expected, but if we start right this can be done away with to a great extent. I have 20 men in mind at the present moment that would be fit in every respect to take positions on a winning team. We need a club and should lose no time in starting the ball."

A number of other fans have expressed themselves in a like manner, and it is thought, with a proper amount of agitation, the idea can be carried out.

BROTHERHOOD FLOURISHING.

President Hughes' Report on Conditions in Akron.

President A. S. Hughes arrived home from Akron yesterday. The gentleman reports Brotherhood affairs in a flourishing condition in that city. The official was summoned to Akron to assist in the settlement of a dispute which arose between the manufacturers and men. The trouble was not of a serious nature, and no difficulty was experienced in settling it to the satisfaction of all concerned.

If you don't see it in the News Review, it didn't happen.

STATE OF OHIO.

COLUMBANA COUNTY. } ss JOHN J. PURINTON, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the Secretary of The Potters' Building and Savings Company of East Liverpool, Ohio, and that the foregoing statement and report is a full and detailed report of the affairs and business of said Company for the fiscal year ending on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1901, and that it is true and correctly shows its financial condition at the end of said fiscal year.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 1st day of March A. D. 1901

[SEAL]

CERTIFICATE OF THREE DIRECTORS OR AUDITING COMMITTEE.

We, the undersigned, John W. Vodrey, William Erlanger and A. M. Nickle, auditing committee of the said The Potters' Building and Savings Co., of East Liverpool, Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of the financial condition of the said Company on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1901, and a true statement of its affairs and business for the fiscal year ending on that day.

WHEN TWO MAKE ONE.

The Twins, the Confident Mother and the Astute Conductor.

"Fares," demanded the Jefferson avenue car conductor.

The tall, thin woman handed out 8 cents for herself and two youngsters.

"Three cents more, please," reminded the conductor.

"They are twins," she explained, "and only equal to one child."

The conductor scratched his head and tried to remember his instructions. Evidently he recollected nothing governing twins; but, being something of a philosopher, he pondered and said: "Twins are out of the ordinary, therefore singular. Perhaps you're right, and yet you spoke of the twins as 'they.' That's plural," and he gazed around triumphantly.

The fat man nodded. He was a bachelor and detested children.

"No," spoke up the comical man; "she is right. They have only one birthday between them. If they equaled two children, they would have two birthdays."

"I guess that's so," acquiesced the conductor. "Anyway I'll look it up."

"They take up two seats," growled the fat man.

The conductor paused and forgot to hand back 5 cents change. "Say," at last he broke out, "what's their names?"

"Wilbur and Marie," replied the mother pertly, failing to see the Delver trap she was walking into.

"Hub! Boy and girl, eh? Well, I'll have to have another fare. You can figure on boy twins equaling one boy, but half a boy and half a girl don't add up."

She paid.
"He's a diplomat," whispered the fat

man in admiration. "He ought to be down in the legislature."—Rochester Post-Express.

New Insomnia Cure.

Brown—Say, I've been trying the finest cure for insomnia that I ever heard of. It is for one to count each breath that he exhales while lying in bed.

Smith—Ah! Then you go to sleep.

Brown—No, but after a little while a fellow gets rather interested in the work, and the night passes away so quickly that he doesn't mind lying still so long.—Brooklyn Life.

The Turks like melody and are particularly devoted to flutes. They have seven different kinds of this musical instrument.

No Venture About It.

"Is this your first venture in matrimony?" the preacher asked while the bridegroom was out in the vestibule giving certain instructions to the best man, who was also his head clerk.

"My dear Mr. Goodleigh," she replied, almost blushing, "this isn't a venture at all. He has given me deeds to more than $60,000 worth of property already."—Chicago Times-Herald.

The Truth Forced Home.

"I'm afraid," she sighed, "that I'm getting old."

"Why?" he asked.

"When I go to the grocery now, the clerks don't nearly break their necks trying to beat one another in getting my orders."—Chicago Times-Herald.
